Boat Missing In Pacific After Leaving Sausalito

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 32-foot auxiliary sailboat Echo, which sailed from Sausalito Tuesday, was missing today.

The Coast Guard said the craft radioed for help late yesterday, saying she was in trouble off San Simeon, 120 miles south of San Francisco.

The call was received at 5:29 p.m. and there has been no radio contact since, the Coast Guard said.

The $25,000 boat is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Glen S. Harman of San Jose.

The Coast Guard cutter Alert searched all night but found nothing. Two planes resumed the search at dawn with no results.

The Echo left Sausalito bound for San Pedro to take part in the trans-Pacific race to Hawaii.

Harman, 45, his son, Lance, 18, and three crew members were aboard.

The Farallon class clipper was built in 1956.

Weather in the area where the boat was last reported was clear with strong north northwest winds, the Coast Guard said.

The Echo was said to be unable to turn from a course of 120 degrees (magnetic compass), which the Coast Guard, said would eventually put it aground in the Morro Bay area.

Belvedere Fixes $134,445 Budget

A budget of $134,445 was approved by the Belvedere City Council last night to cover government costs for the fiscal year 1959-60.

It will probably require an increase in the current tax rate of $1.85, reduced last year from the $2 level where it had been for four years.

The budget is $14,445 higher than this year's, but most of the increase reflects rising costs and the demands of a greater population, and not new expenditures.

It sticks pretty close to the current year's budget, with revisions based on the experience of the first nine months of this year.

'ON EVEN KEEL'

City Manager Britton Rey said today, "This budget shows we are keeping on an even keel."

Not until the assessment roll has been equalized during public hearings by the county supervisors sitting as a board of equalization will the city council set a tax rate. But indications are the rate will be higher than this year, and probably, in view of informed estimates, as high as $2 if the city is to stay within its budget.

But that's up to the city council, and probably won't occur until the August meeting.

Rey, in a memorandum to the city council last night, wrote:

"Last year it was not possible to accurately estimate tax revenues on account of the delay in completing the assessment roll. Estimates were based on the new appraisals (following a countywide reappraisal of properties) but due to final adjustments of the board of equalization the expected increase of assessed values fell considerably short of estimates.

TAX RATE CUT

"As a result the tax rate was reduced by 15 cents per $100 and included provisions for interest and amortization of the 1957 bonds which were publicized to the voters as requiring an increase of 16 cents per $100.

"As a result, in order to accomplish the reduction of the previous rate of $2 per $100, the cut in revenue had to be taken in the general fund.

"This reduction amounted to 26 cents per $100 which, with the increased demands of the growing community, curtailed considerably the requirements for general fund purposes."

Rey pointed out that the 1957 tidelands bond issue had not raised the tax rate last year and will not be the factor that raises it this year.

PROPERTY TAXES

The amount of money to be raised by property taxes to accommodate next year's budget is $107,645.

The city's estimated revenue for next year, aside from property taxes, is $26,800.

Rey noted last night that salaries and wages for the city would comprise 37 per cent of

Title Fight Delayed

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight today was postponed from tonight to tomorrow night because of rain and wet grounds at Yankee Stadium.

"I consulted with the New York Boxing Commission and the people at Yankee Stadium," promoter Bill Rosensohn said. "The infield was very muddy and in deference to the public we have postponed the bout until tomorrow night. If conditions demain the same, we will decide about the alternate date tomorrow."

The weather forecast was "showers and thunderstorms tonight and Friday."

The postponement was announced two hours after the fighters had weighed in, with the Swedish challenger holding a 14-pound advantage over champion Patterson. Johansson scaled 196 to Patterson's 182.

Patterson's poundage was his lowest since he became champion. He weighed 182¼ the night he captured the vacant title by knocking out Archie Moore on Nov. 30, 1956. Patterson went that low again last month in his 11th-round knockout of Britain's Brian London at Indianapolis.

The postponement is expected to affect Patterson more than Johansson, because the champion requires extreme "sharpness" to do his best.

No additional weigh-in will be required within 48 hours, and after that it's up to the state Athletic Commission.

MARIN POULTRY INDUSTRY ON VERGE OF EXTINCTION

Falling Prices, Mounting Costs Spell Ruin To Many Ranchers

North Marin poultrymen, dwindling in numbers steadily in recent years, today are faced with the gloomy prospect of extinction as a result of plummeting egg prices and mechanized production.

Novato 30 years ago was a thriving egg-producing area. Today it is the site of far fewer chicken ranches, most of them operating at a loss, according to their owners.

Some ranches also continue in operation in northwest Marin.

Harold Bloom, a chicken ranch owner in Novato since 1942, said today that although egg prices have risen by five cents during the past week, the increase is not enough to make chicken and egg production a profitable venture for the small rancher.

AVERAGE COST

Average cost to the rancher, who is carrying on a replacement program (raising pullets for next year's egg production) is 32 cents a dozen, he said. The present wholesale price averages 30 cents, meaning continuing loss to the chicken farmer.

The big problem, Bloom said, is that the small rancher is being squeezed out of the market by "integration" programs — whereby farmers no longer own the poultry they produce, but instead produce them for outside firms which in turn are cutting costs by large-scale mechanized production techniques.

"That kind of a program may or may not be a good thing for the industry," Bloom said, "but it will mean an end to the family-run chicken ranch."

HELP FROM U.S.

There is some hope that the federal government may step in and buy up surpluses, he said.

County Supervisor William Gnoss, a Novato chicken rancher, agreed that the future is dark for chicken producers. "Last week our price from the wholesaler was 26 cents. I'm now losing about $500 a month."

W. J. Kline, a chicken producer in Novato for many years, retired from the business

KOREAN WAR BEGAN JUST NINE YEARS AGO

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — The ninth anniversary of the start of the Korean War was marked today by:

1. A repeat of the Communist charge that John Foster Dulles touched off the war.
2. An American denial of this, and a statement that the Reds started the conflict with Soviet backing.
3. Anti-American rallies in Communist China, North Korea and Tokyo.
4. Rallies in South Korea featuring banners inscribed "Fight the Communists to achieve unification" and "Remember the day of disgrace."

Bayliss Plans To Quit Marin YMCA Position

Brad Bayliss, for eight years the executive secretary of the Marin County Young Men's Christian Assn., will leave in mid-August for a new position as executive secretary of the Indiana University YMCA in Bloomington, Ind.

His resignation was announced at Monday night's meeting of the local board of directors. Louis Albrecht, youth program secretary, was named as acting executive to serve until a permanent replacement for Bayliss is selected.

HIS REASON

Bayliss said his reason for accepting the new position was a long-standing interest in working with students. In the case of college students, he said, it will be a chance "to help them rebuild their values at a period when they are discarding or questioning what they have been taught."

"Both my wife and I regret leaving Marin County," he added. "But in this work you go where there's need and opportunity."

At the YMCA at 1009 Irwin street in San Rafael, Bayliss with the aid of four full-time and four part-time staff members has directed activities of 55 teen-age clubs for both boys and girls, with a total membership of 650. Each is a "friendship group" of either boys or girls from one high school grade. Certain of the activities —such as trips to Sacramento, beach parties and training of officers—are inter-club.

STARTED IN 1943

Bayliss, 52, began his YMCA work in 1943 in Huntington Park, a suburb of Los Angeles. Before coming to San Rafael he was with the Tulare County YMCA in Visalia. His previous

New Contract Waits Approval Of Carpenters

Carpenters and employers in four Bay Area counties including Marin have reached agreement on a new three-year work contract, subject to ratification by carpenter union members, the Associated Press reported today.

A joint negotiating committee announced the agreement but withheld details until a vote is taken by the Bay Counties District Council of Carpenters.

An unofficial report said that the agreement is based on an hourly wage increase of 68 cents spread over the three-year period of the contract.

This would be six and seven-eighths cents more than carpenters in 42 other Northern California counties won in their new contract which was agreed upon several weeks ago.

Involved in the current contract negotiations are carpenters in Marin, San Francisco, Alameda and San Mateo counties. They had threatened to strike last Monday morning if no agreement had been reached, but withdrew the strike threat Friday.

Cooler Weather Is In Offing

Official temperatures in Marin yesterday dropped below the 90s for the first time in several days, and the Weather Man has predicted cooler weather tonight and tomorrow for California's northern coast.

There may even be a few light showers, but they well be inland and in the far northern part of the state.

Yesterday at Woodacre the high was 78; atop Mt. Tamalpais, 70; Mill Valley, 87; Belvedere, 83,

Hospital Turns 33 Patients Away In Month

Lack of sufficient beds forced Marin General Hospital to turn away 38 patients during May, Administrator S. Ames Pence said today in his monthly report.

He said crowded conditions required some patients to be hospitalized in the corridors. The surgical floor was 97.3 per cent occupied last month and the medical floor 96.1 per cent.

Hospital admissions during May totaled 560, while 134 babies were delivered.

Admissions by area were: Ross Valley, 161; San Rafael, 141; Southern Marin, 138; North Marin, 48; out-of-county, 33; central Marin, 12, and coastal Marin, 5.

Pence reported that Marin General Hospital operated in the black during the first five months of 1959, with income exceeding costs by $7,800.

Double Killer Slated To Die Tomorrow

Herman Cecil Ward, 26-year-old double murderer, is scheduled to die in San Quentin Prison's gas chamber at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman in San Francisco yesterday denied an appeal by Ward, ruling that the slayer was not deprived of his constitutional rights when a state law providing that the jury set the penalty in a murder case was applied in Ward's case, despite the fact the law was passed after the crime for which Ward was being tried.

Ward, a Bakersfield oil field worker, was convicted of fatally shooting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Nell Paris, 43, and her daughter, Brenda, 13.

Miss Marin Leaves For The Big Test

By LARRY LOVETT

Things were in a great uproar at 141 Shelley drive in the Enchanted Knolls section of Mill Valley about 10 o'clock this morning as Tami Evans, Marin's candidate for "Miss California" and "Miss America" honors left for Santa Cruz and a major step in the long and tortuous contest of curves, character and capability.

As her black eyes flashed in anticipation of the week end's events, Tami gulped down the last bit of breakfast prepared by her mother, Mrs. Richard Evans, as she readied for the trip.

"Tomorrow and Saturday nights," she said, "there will be shows when the girls wear their bathing suits and their formals."

Tami should do well in both.

"And the final part is the talent contest," she continued, adding that she plans to sing and dance. She took with her a big stuffed panda and other stuffed animals required in this performance.

MARIN CONTEST

In the Marin contest, May 16, when she won her "Miss Marin" title, she did a pantomime with a recording background. But no recordings or tapes are permitted at the Santa Cruz contest, she said. The Marin contest was sponsored by the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"I'll be competing with girls from 31 cities in California," Tami said, "but 32 girls are involved. There are those twns from Palo Alto, you know."

Tami, 18, has lived n Marin for two years and was graduated from Tamalpais High School last year. She is legal secretary in San Francisco.

Her father is an automobile firm zone manager.

NOT HER IDEA

"Actually, my entering this contest was not my idea," she confided. "I wasn't too enthusiastic about it and my family

S.F. Street Mishap Hurts Marin Man

John Taylor, 36, of 113 Reed boulevard, Strawberry, escaped with minor injuries shortly after noon yesterday when he was pinned between a municipal bus and a taxi as he crossed Geary street in San Francisco.

Taylor, married and the father of three children, was treated at Harbor Emergency and Kaiser Hospitals in San Francisco, and released after it was determined he was not seriously hurt. His injuries consisted of cuts and bruises about the legs.

Taylor, who is an assistant secretary-manager for Pacific Gas and Electric Co., was in a pedestrian crosswalk, according to San Francisco police. A bus pinned him against a stationary taxi and scraped him along its side.

Quentin Convicts Help Fight Fire

Control of the Sonoma County forest fire was aided yesterday by about 220 firefighters from three San Quentin Prison honor camps.

Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff reported that men from Parlin Fork, Chamberlin Creek and High Rock Camps helped battle the blaze. Other men from the prison here were on standby, Achuff said, when high winds increased the fire's threat.

One of the prisoners was knocked down by a falling tree on the fire line and brought to the San Quentin hospital for observation. Serious injury was avoided because he was wearing a safety helmet, Achuff said.

Marin's New Soil District Board Elects

Waldo Giacomini of Point Reyes Station yesterday was elected president of the board of directors of the newly formed Marin County Soil Conservation District at the board's organizational meeting in Point Reyes Station.

Other new officers are Domingo Grossi Jr., Inverness, vice president; Louis Albini, Valley Ford, executive secretary, and Mrs. Alta Johnson, Novato, acting recording secretary.

Other directors are Thomas Furlong of Tomales and David Leveroni of Novato. The board decided to hold regular meetings at 1:30 p.m. the second Monday of every month in offices of the Sonoma-Marin Creamery in Point Reyes Station.

Yesterday's meeting was held in the same building, but in offices of the Point Reyes Milk Producers Assn.

So We Sent A Novato Cab To S. F., Why Be Upset?

Two 13-year-old Novato girls have expressed surprise that anyone would be upset because they sent a taxicab on a wild goose chase to San Francisco.

They told Deputy Sheriff Gerald Freis they were surprised anyone would be angry, because many other persons were making similar calls to cab companies—and to appliance stores.

Alvin Fields, who runs the Yellow Cab Co. on Grant avenue in Novato, complained that girls have been bothering him with false phone calls for the past two weeks.

On June 13, a cab driver was sent to Buchanan street in San Francisco on a false run. Last Tuesday, another false call sent a cab to 1438 Cambridge street in Novato.

When Sgt. Edward Levine caught the girls, they said they did it "for fun." They also admitted they called a television shop and ordered services at a false address, and called an appliance service company on a false run.

Both girls were warned. Officers said the girls are willing to pay the cab company for wasted time and expense. Levine didn't say how he caught the girls.

Marin Firemen Help Petaluma

Marin County firemen last night helped extinguish a fire which swept over 50 acres of grass at Petaluma.

A request for aid came at 7:18 p.m. from the Petaluma fire department which had several units at the big Sonoma County coastal forest fire.

The fire swept across grassland belonging to four property owners, and destroyed a brooder house.

Firemen saved a building containing 11,500 chickens.

ANTI-RUST CAMPAIGN—Business partners Steve Wheeler Jr. (in diving equipment) and Bob Quinlan Jr., both 19, go over plans for their summer business officially known as Anti-Rust Co. Their service is to send a diver below armed with a syringe of muriatic acid to eliminate rust marks in swimming pools. Behind the boys is their "service car," a white Corvette, and behind it is their office, the poolside cabana of Bob's parents at 615 College avenue, Kent Woodlands. (Mike Robert photo)

THEY CLEAN POOLS

Young Businessman's Venture Pays Off

By DIANA BRUCE

Enterprise plus scientific know-how have launched Anti-Rust Co., of Kentfield, the brain-child of two 19-year-old boys who had a 17-year-old as "chemical adviser."

Its aim is to remove rust marks from the sides and bottoms of swimming pools. Its method is to send a diver below armed with a syringe loaded with muriatic acid.

The acid simply dissolves the rust and doesn't hurt the pool. Muriatic acid is used to balance the pool water's alkalinity and the small amount added (about 15 cc.) during the rust removing process doesn't add any hazard, said Bob Quinlan Jr., one of the two business managers of Anti-Rust Co.

POOLSIDE OFFICE

The 19-year-old partners have set up their office in the poolside cabana of Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quinlan at 615 College avenue, Kent Woodlands.

Co-manager of the enterprise is Steve Wheeler Jr., of 2 Magnolia avenue, Larkspur, who has his hand in several occupations. Last week he opened his own service station at Alto.

Both boys may have inherited some of their business-like tendencies. Bob's father is a coffee, tea and spice import-export broker in San Francisco. Steve's father is manager of the Kentfield Jolly Store, and a Larkspnur city councilman.

The idea for the new process was contributed by Baxter Smille, Redwood High School science award winner who will enter University of California in the fall as a chemistry major. Smille, 17, lives at 56 Rock road, Kentfield.

SUGGESTS ACID

Bob Quinlan said he was trying to figure out a way to remove the rust marks from his family's pool when Smille entered the suggestion the muriatic acid would do the trick.

Common causes of the unsightly marks are bobby pins, metal filings and metal toys that fall into a pool.

In the first two days of business last week, the Anti-Rust Co. cleaned five pools. "On the first job I made $1 an hour," Quinlan. "I got the job done in 10 minutes."

The firm charges $10 to clean an average-sized pool. Ordinary method to remove rust marks is by using wet sandpaper or a stiff wire to scratch the surface of pool sides and bottom. The scratches provide a breed for algae and stains.

Next step the infant enterprise plans to take is to obtain aerial photographs of all sections of Marin County in an effort to locate their prospective customers—the pool owners in Marin County.

Blood Bank Visits Novato Tomorrow

The mobile unit of the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank of San Francisco will visit Novato tomorrow from 2 to 6:30 p.m. at Trevitt Hall of the Novato Presbyterian Church.

Arrangements for the visit have been made by the auxiliary to Donald V. Westlund Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Transportation to and from the donation station will be provided by VFW members. Arrangements may be made by calling the Presbyterian church during the hours of donation tomorrow.

ELECTED—Arthur W. Sweet of 359 Molino avenue, Mill Valley, has been elected president of the San Francisco chapter of the National Machine Accountants Assn. He is controller of Tab Products Co., manufacturer of data processing auxiliary equipment and files.

1 Hurt, 2 Cited In Sausalito Crash

Two southbound cars on Bridgeway in Sausalito started to pass a slow moving truck just as it began to turn left into Gate 5 and one driver suffered minor injuries in the resulting collision at 9:50 a. m. yesterday, reported the California Highway Patrol.

Edgar John Donlon, 68, of 11 Thalia street, Mill Valley, and Harry S. Gossage, 30, of Petaluma, both were cited for interfering with safe operation of an overtaken vehicle. Gossage suffered minor injuries and said he would consult his physician.

Jerry H. Creekpaum, 18, of the 561st Engineer Company, Ft. Baker, was driving a three-axle truck loaded with five tons of red rock. Creekpaum had signaled for the left turn, reported CHP Officer A. J. Corvino.

Marin Leads Bay Area In Retail Sales Hike

Marin County, with an increase of 5.8 per cent, led all Bay Area counties in percentage increase in retail sales in 1958 over 1957, according to a report by the San Francisco Bay Area Council.

Marin's 1958 total was $102,995,000; in 1957 it was $97,349,000, with the 1958 gain amounting to $5,646,000.

Seven of the nine Bay Area counties showed increases, with only San Francisco and Alameda reporting decreases.

However, the decreases in those two counties dragged the total down to the point where the nine-county group as a whole showed a decrease of one-half of 1 per cent.

PT&T Directors Initiate Action For Stock Split

The board of directors of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. initiated action to split the common shares of the company on a seven-for-one basis.

Directors said they believe the action will result in a broadening of public interest in the company's common shares, an increase in the number of shareholders and a greater availability of shares for purchase and sale.

As a first step, directors authorized company officers to file applications with the appropriate regulatory commissions seeking authority to change the 13,530,900 outstanding common shares of $100 par value into 94,717,300 common shares of $14 2/7 par value, and to solicit consents of the shareholders to the change.

If the necessary commission approvals and consents of shareholders are obtained for splitting the common shares, it is also planned to provide that each of the company's $100 par value 6 per cent cumulative preferred shares will have seven voting and pre-emptive rights, this action being necessary to preserve the rights of the preferred shareholders.

During the last five years, the company has raised more than one billion dolars through the sale of securities to meet the needs of the Pacific coast for telephone service and it is expected that large amounts of new capital will be required in the future.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—A stock market rally continued late this afternoon but lost considerable headway. Trading was moderately active.

Volume for the day was estimated at three million shares, compared with 3,180,000 yesterday.

The market was higher in a vigorous opening as it carried through from yesterday's sharp rise. Profit taking began almost immediately, however, and the trend accelerated.

American Motors, helped by upward revisions of earnings estimates in Wall Street, was active and up about two. Chrysler and Studebaker-Packard rose about a point apiece.

U.S. Steel was off about a point and Jones and Laughlin eased in a mixed steel group which showed small gains for other leaders.

Senate Votes For Travel Levy Repeal

Amendment To Tax Bill Has Little Chance In House

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted today for repeal of the 10 per cent tax on passenger travel, effective Aug. 1.

Voice votes accepted this proposal from its finance committee and also a proposal for repeal of the 10 per cent communications tax, effective July 1, 1960.

The Senate action put the repealers into a bill, already passed by the House, to extend for a year at present rates various excise and corporation income taxes now due to expire July 1.

LITTLE CHANCE

There appears to be little chance that the House will agree to the repealers which would cost the government about a billion dollars a year in revenue.

The return from the passenger tax is estimated at 235 million dollars annually, and that from the communications tax at 735 million.

A major question still facing the Senate was whether to get into the bill some provision for financing interstate highways.

MARATHON SESSION

The need for meeting a July 1 deadline complicated the Senate's problem as it headed into a marathon session to consider proposed amendments to the revenue measure.

The bill as passed by the House June 8 would extend for another year the present rates on various excise and corporate income taxes. Unless it becomes law by July 1, these would drop to pre-Korean war levels, and government revenues would decline an estimated three billion dollars a year.

Tiburon Council Board Elects 2

Two new members of the executive board of the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council were elected at last night's regular meeting, according to Peter MacGowan.

William Rafter and M. R. Ehrer were elected to replace Richard Payne and Louis Cimina, who resigned.

The members heard a report on the future plans for the Hilarita project by Erwin Farley, executive deputy director of the Marin County Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency. The council took no action on the report.

Boy Facing Operation Would Like Letters

Billy Brady of San Anselmo, who has spent much of his 12 years in extended periods of hospitalization or in leg casts after surgery, is in Shriners' Hospital, San Francisco today for his fourth operation to correct a congenital hip deformity.

The surgery will probably be performed in the next few days. Meanwhile, the boy is feeling lonesome in the hospital and would be pleased to receive mail, according to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brady of 19 Belle avenue, San Anselmo.

BILLY BRADY
The last, he hopes

Billy underwent surgery for the first time when he was about 3, and was in the hospital that time for about seven months, wearing a cast for a long time after that.

His father, who is an auditor for the state Department of Employment in San Rafael, said it is hoped that the operation to be performed this time may be the last of the series.

Billy will be an eighth grade student at St. Anselm's School, San Anselmo, next fall. Despite his handicap, he leads an active life, riding a bicycle and playing most sports, his father said.

The boy has five sisters and two brothers.

Castro Regime In Trouble; Inside, Outside Threats Loom

By PHIL NEWSON

NEW YORK (UPI)—Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime in Cuba is in serious trouble. Government forces have been alerted against attack either from within or without.

The country's economic situation, which is going from bad to worse, is the main concern right now.

Some 300,000 sugar crop workers will be out of jobs upon completion of the sugar harvest at the end of this month. When that happens, Cuba's unemployed will hit near the one-million mark, or approximately half of the nation's working force.

Six months after victorious Castro forces successfully ousted President Fulgencio Batista from office, Cuban business is almost at a standstill.

Each revolutionary law passed has brought with it an almost complete paralysis in its field.

For example, rent reductions paralyzed the construction field. The agrarian reform law has paralyzed cane, tobacco and rice plantings. Import and exchange controls have paralyzed imports. Restrictions on installment sales have almost halted retail trade.

The agrarian reform law has, in addition, fanned physical resentment to an unprecedented degree, even among many who were ardent Castro supporters.

Government reorganization has created chaos.

Some 20,000 Batista soldiers are out of jobs. So are many other thousands of public servants.

The spark of rebellion has been lit.

In the last three weeks, government forces have been put on three separate alerts against attack.

Apparently feared is an air strike from without, possibly against Santiago and mounted from the Dominican Republic, which in turn has been charging that attacks against its own government have been mounted from Cuba.

At the moment, any blow against Castro probably would not be successful.

The opposition, although sizeable and growing, is not now organized. Recent flareups do not appear to be part of a concerted plot.

However, information in Cuba is that organized opposition is being built up outside, principally in Ciudad Trujillo in the Dominican Republic where Batista is in exile, and in Miami.

There also seems reason to doubt the loyalty of some of Castro's own rebel troops. Examples are the recent purge of the air force and demonstrations of rebel soldiers incensed against the regime in Oriente Province.

Church leaders have switched from all-out support of the Castro administration to urge a go-slow policy on some government plans.

It all adds up to trouble for Castro.

Argentina Appears On Brink Of Revolt

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina seems near the brink of revolution today, with President Arturo Frondizi beset by continuing rebelliousness in military circles and the threat of mass protests by Communist and Peronist labor unions.

Government officials continued to claim that the threat to the government had been averted by Frondizi's reshuffle of his cabinet and particularly by the appointment of a leading advocate of free enterprise, Alvaro Alsogaray, to head the economic and labor ministries.

Other sources said certain high military leaders were far from satisfied and sentiment in favor of ousting Frondizi was still strong in the armed forces.

War Secretary Hector Solanas Pacheco admitted that a number of army officers for whom arrest warrants had been issued were still at large. Many were believed in the military barracks at Cordoba, the center of current agitation against Frondizi and the starting point of the 1955 revolution which overthrew dictator Juan Peron.

Vice Adm. Isaac Rojas, a leader of the anti-Peron revolt, predicted yesterday that Frondizi would face a revolution "within a few days or a few weeks" if he did not resign immediately.

The 62 labor unions known for their Peronist sympathies issued a communique accusing Frondizi of failing to keep his campaign promises and blaming him for "errors which have brought the country to the verge of chaos."

Alsogaray's appointment as the country's economic and labor czar was certain to increase the unions' opposition to Frondizi.

French Beat Back Algeria Rebel Attack

ALBIERS (AP) — The French army claimed complete control again today around the eastern port city of Bone after crushing the largest rebel assault ever made on a big Algerian city. The rebels' aim appeared to be psychological rather than military.

French troops, planes and tanks surrounded the rebel band on the outskirts of Bone near the airport.

A communique reported 31 rebels killed and 15 captured during more than 12 hours of fighting yesterday. The French reported six of their soldiers killed.

Prisoners said the band had been dispatched as reinforcements to the Kabylie mountain area in central Algeria from nearby Tunisia, where the rebels have their main training ground.

The Algerian attackers were specially uniformed and equipped with automatic weapons. In attacking the heavily fortified city of 150,000, they apparently were trying to show the world, the French and their own people that the four-and-one-half-year-old rebellion is still flourishing despite French claims to the contrary.

Panama 'Frees' Arias

PANAMA (AP)—Roberto Arias, husband of British Ballerina Margot Fonteyn, has been granted a safe-conduct to Brazil two months after leading a revolt that flopped.

Arias, a former Panamanian ambassador in London, took refuge in the Brazilian embassy here April 24 after landing on Panama's Pacific coast April 19 with a small group of armed revolutionists intent on overthrowing President Ernesto de la Guardia.

TO DEDICATE EXHIBIT

New Russ Visitor Is Affable, Noncommital

MOSCOW (AP) — An impeccably groomed Communist who looks like the board chairman of an American corporation is going to New York this weekend to dedicate a Soviet national exhibit.

Frol Romanovich Kozlov in effect is trading off for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who comes to Moscow next month to open the American fair. The honor has not been lost on Moscow's diplomatic colony.

Kozlov is one of the Soviet Union's two first vice premiers. The other is Anastas I. Mikoyan, who traveled across the United States last January.

Kozlov is a quietly pleasant man who wears well-cut dark suits that set off his smooth, rosy face crowned by wavy silver hair.

Diplomats who have met Kozlov at Kremlin receptions and embassy parties say he makes pleasant conversation that usually run along noncommital lines.

While Premier Nikita Khrushchev and his aides sometimes orate on international issues at these affairs, Kozlov stands to one side chatting about the weather.

Kozlov has confided to Richard H. Davis, U.S. minister and charge d'affaires here, that he is looking forward to his visit to New York and even more to the trip across the United States afterward.

Diplomats who know him expect Kozlov to mask whatever reaction he has to Western ways behind polite pleasantries.

As in the case of most Soviet leaders, Kozlov's private life is a closely guarded secret. Diplomats who have been here for years don't even know if he is married.

His public record is well known, however. It was climaxed on his 50th birthday last August when he received his second Order of Lenin "in recognition of his great services to the Communist Party and the Soviet state." The order is one of the highest honors the Soviet Union has to offer.

Red China Metropolis Faces Big Flood Threat

HONG KONG (AP)—The south China metropolis of Canton was described today as a city of terror, its one and one-half million people facing what may be its most catastrophic flood in a century. But the city's main dikes were reported still holding at midday.

Communist and anti-Communist sources both painted a picture of possible disaster in populous Kwantung Province, across the border from Hong Kong.

The independent newspaper Sing Tao Jih Pao said Canton is "a city of terror under the threat of the most disastrous flood in its history. More than one million people are living in constant dread of being drowned or starving to death if the dikes on the Peh or North river cave in."

Torrential rains have swollen the Peh and Si (or West) Rivers, that converge with the Tung or East River above Canton and flow to the South China Sea through the Pearl River estuary. The rains reportedly continued in the Peh watershed yesterday, but the Tung was said to have begun dropping.

Details on the situation were scarce and reports contradictory. But they show China is still vulnerable to age-old natural calamities.

Pro-Nationalist and independent newspapers quoted travelers from Canton as saying parts of the big south China port already are under flood waters ranging from knee-high to 10 feet.

DECLINES $110,000—A couple of hours before this picture was taken yesterday, John O. Ekblom, 64, passed up a $110,000 bonus which directors of the Hupp Corp. of Cleveland, Ohio, wanted to give him in addition to a salary of $42,000 a year. Ekblom, board chairman of Hupp, told the directors' meeting to distribute the $110,000 as incentive increases to other executives, and that will be done. He said a total sum of $152,000 "far exceeds my needs and my appetite." (AP Wirephoto)

Statehood Vote Near

HONOLULU (UPI)—Edward E. Johnston, secretary of Hawaii, predicted today that 85 per cent of Hawaii's 174,000 registered voters would turn out Saturday to put their stamp of approval on statehood and nominate candidates.

Johnston said, "For years Hawaii has had the best voter turnout in the United States in its territorial elections, and I am sure that a good many people will want to be able to tell their grandchildren they voted for statehood."

Barrymore Fined

SANTA MONICA (AP) — John Barrymore Jr. was fined $500 yesterday for misdemeanor drunk driving and hit and run driving. He also was placed on three years' probation.

The 27-year-old actor, arrested March 6 after a two-car collision in Beverly Hills, had pleaded guilty to the charges.

A judge ordered him to abstain from alcohol, use his car in the next 90 days only to go to work or visit his agent, and continue psychiatric assistance which his attorney said he is seeking.

Is Brigitte Expecting?

ST. TROPEZ, France (AP) — French film producers wondered today if Brigitte Bardot, 24-year-old bride of a week, is expecting her first baby.

The question has caused postponement of two scheduled Bardot films and so far the blonde French actress hasn't said yes or no. Husband Jacques Charrier, the leading man she married June 18, denied she was pregnant yesterday. Brigitte herself smiled and let him do the talking.

Youth Shoots Self Practicing Draw

Another young fast draw artist shot himself in the right leg with a .22 caliber revolver yesterday evening.

Geoffrey C. Steer, 17, son of Stanley Steer of Lagunitas road in Ross, had the bullet removed from his right thigh at Marin General Hospital.

Steer told Deputy Sheriff John Harris he was practicing with a companion, Richard Underhill, along North San Pedro road about 5 p.m. His .22 caliber Ruger went off, and a slug entered his right thigh.

Steer said he has had enough of fast draw for some time to come.

Mrs. K. Will Travel

COPENHAGEN (AP)—Mrs. Nikita Khrushchev is going to make her first visit to the West this summer, Danish Foreign Ministry sources said today.

The sources said the Soviet Prime Minister's wife is included in the party for her husband's Scandinavian tour in August.

Like all wives of leading Soviet officials, Mrs. Khrushchev stays out of the limelight and is virtually unknown to Westerners in Moscow.

They Went Ahead

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—It seemed that every time Viola Clark and Rodney Hoeltzel planned to get married something interfered.

Twice they postponed the wedding because of illness in their immediate families.

This week it happened again. Miss Clark went to the hospital with appendicitis and had an operation on what would have been her wedding day.

Enough of postponements, the young couple decided. They were married yesterday in her hospital room.

BERGEN, Norway (AP) — Authorities sifting the ashes of the fire-gutted Stalheim Hotel have found 13 bodies so far. Another 11 persons are believed missing.

The bodies have not been identified, but the dead and missing are believed to include 20 Americans, 3 Canadians and a Dutchman.

Twenty-two persons are still in hospitals at nearby Voss with injuries from the fire. Eighteen of the injured are American.

There were 147 guests in the tourist hotel — 130 of them Americans — when the fire broke out early Tuesday morning.

Tiara Nets $308,000

LONDON (AP) — New York gem dealer Harry Winston today paid $308,000 for a diamond tiara often worn by British royalty.

It was a second record for the auction of the late Duke of Westminster's estate, the highest price for a piece of jewelry.

Yesterday a London art dealer paid the record auction price for a painting, $770,000, for Rubens' altarpiece "The Adoration of the Magi." The dealer said he bought it for a private British collector whose identity he would not disclose.

BUDGET

the budget for next year, and pointed out that the League of California Cities Bulletin said in April that "Salaries of municipal employees generally amount to between 60 and 70 per cent of the municipal operating budget."

A breakdown of expenditures in the budget shows, in the general fund, $1,100 for legislative expenses, $12,900 for executive offices; $3,800 for finance and legal departments; $1,100 for elections and $7,900 for general government buildings.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

A total of $6,200 is allocated for employee benefits including hospital benefits and retirement funds.

Allocations of $18,200 have been made to the police department; $8,845 to the fire department (including money for the purchase of additional fire hose and a hose drying rack); $1,600 to building inspection; $3,500 for insurance; $27,000 for street maintenance, construction and lighting; $5,000 to the corporation yard; $7,600 to the parks and recreation department (a request of $7,100 to construct restrooms in the city park was omitted and a recommendation was made that restrooms in the community hall be refurbished and kept open during park hours); $2,000 in a contingency fund.

Twelve thousand dollars was allocated to the sanitation fund (sewer department).

BOND INTEREST

Bond interest and redemption in the budget includes $8,000 for the 1948 sewer bond sinking fund and $7,700 for the 1957 tidelands bond sinking fund.

Rey said today the delinquent real property tax list this year amounted to $8,300 or 8.6 per cent of the total tax rate. He said no allowance had been made for delinquencies in the budget which was adopted last night.

The city's unequalized assessment roll, delivered to City Manager Rey yesterday, set the value of property in the city at $5,383,000. "My guess was $5,571,740," said Rey last night.

"Pretty good," said Councilman Ida Scott.

"I don't think so," responded Rey.

The council trimmed an unappropriated surplus of $2,487 from its estimates of revenues for next year to help make up the difference.

Councilman H. Nordmark Williams and Dr. Robert Watkins were on the finance committee which consulted with Rey in preparation of the budget.

The big time comes Sunday afternoon, she said, when all the contestants appear on the Santa Cruz beach in bathing suits and the winners are announced. This will be televised.

Her driver-escort on the trip is Ken Howard from the Junior Chamber of Commerce and her chaperone is Mrs. Sara Campbell from the Modern Eve Shop which furnished Tami's formal.

Her heart interest?

No time for that now, she protests, but she hints that it's mighty nice to have Ken along.

Radio Panel Discusses Promotion Fund Use

How far the county board of supervisors should go in subsidizing non-profit cultural and business promotion organizations was debated this morning by a five-member panel of radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" program.

Arthur K. Smart, president of the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs, and Miss Mildred Corbin, president of the Muir Woods Park Improvement Assn., voiced opposition to the county underwriting chambers of commerce, the Marin Industrial Development Foundation and the Marin County Taxpayers Assn., which has threatened to file a lawsuit against the county. All have asked for grants. Smart and Miss Corbin did not object to support of cultural organizations.

Robert Pendergrass, former president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce and a founding member of the Marin Industrial Development Foundation, and Paul Leahy, present head of the San Rafael chamber, both spoke in favor of the county grants.

The fifth panelist, County Auditor Leon de Lisle, pointed out that the county grants were perfectly legal under state law. The proposed 1959-60 county budget lists subsidies totaling $23,500. The legal limit of four cents per $100 assessed valuation would allow grants totaling $160,000 next fiscal year, de Lisle estimated.

The program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Miss Corbin said she could see how cultural organizations —Junior Museum of Marin, Marin Music Chest, Marin County Historical Society, Symphony Guild of Marin—were of benefit to the entire county.

But she took exception to a $1,000 grant this fiscal year to the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

"They have a closed membership list . . . Certainly I can think of nothing I would like less than underwriting the Marin Rod and Gun Club," Miss Corbin declared.

A listener telephoned to inform the panel that this grant was used for a huge tent that housed visitors to the Marin Rod and Gun Club Show.

Miss Corbin also objected to the fact that members of her association on occasion have appeared before the county planning commission and found that they were opposed by the "secretary of the Marin Development Foundation whose salary we're paying."

The $9,000 given to the foundation the current fiscal year is half the foundation's operating budget and almost the amount paid to manager Carroll A. Snyker. He receives $7,920 a year.

Leahy said the $3,500 requested by the San Rafael Chamber is "only one-seventh of our total budget." He said the chamber's efforts to bring new businesses and tourists to Marin County help to keep the tax rate down.

Pendergrass said the development foundation's purpose was to encourage light industry (not heavy industry) to locate in Marin County. He said when the Koch luggage plant opened in Corte Madera that a majority of job applicants were Marin residents as proof that there was a demand for new payrolls in the county.

He also pointed to the foundation's efforts to have a new four-year state college located in Novato as "aiding education." Pendergrass said that a civil defense study prepared by the foundation would otherwise have had to be made by some county government office.

POULTRY

four months ago. Asked if he was sorry to leave the business, he replied: "No, not at all. I could see the writing on the wall years ago."

Another chicken rancher, Frank Baccaglio of South Novato boulevard, has cut down his flock and is now working as a carpenter as well as a rancher.

Frank Regalia, a rancher in Novato until several months ago, sold out his chicken business in favor of a full-time job as a carpenter, according to his wife. "We were starving—and we like the taste of food."

The Regalias at one time had as many as 10,000 chickens.

At least one poultryman, however, maintains a cheery attitude. Wilfred Lieb, owner of 1,500 chickens at the end of Hill road, said "I'm still in business and plan to stay in."

Lieb sells his eggs to a Petaluma hatchery, which hatches them for broiler chicks.

Indian Valley road rancher Frank Gustafson, with a flock of 8,500 birds, recalls that at one time "A boxcar load of eggs used to be shipped out of Novato three times a week."

Today, the poultry producer must raise at least 1,300 birds, with up-to-the-minute mechanized processes cutting labor costs, before a profit can be realized.

Youth Suffers Stab Wound In Playful Tussle With Pal

An 18-year-old Mill Valley youth suffered an inch-deep stab wound in his chest yesterday evening while grappling with a friend holding a pocket knife.

Ben Daniel Hart of 60 Valley Circle, Mill Valley, was treated at Marin General Hospital about 7 p.m. and released.

Sheriff's Deputy John Harris said Dan McLean, 18, of 132 Belvedere drive, Mill Valley, was holding the pocket knife. The incident happened at a home at 24 Matilda avenue.

Hart gave this account of what happened: He was playing on the telephone when McLean playfully told him to stop it. McLean then took a pocket knife out of his hand, and the two began to wrestle on the floor.

Hart was holding McLean's right hand, which held the knife. Hart, thinking McLean had loosened his arm, loosened his own grip, and the knife plunged into his chest.

Doctors at Marin General Hospital reported the wound was not serious.

Doctor Wins Custody Of 5 Children

Dr. E. Kenneth Harris, 35, former Sleepy Hollow physician who battled for custody of his five children in Marin Superior Court last year, won the fight in Los Angeles Superior Court yesterday.

Judge Caryl Sheldon of Los Angeles took the children from their mother, Helen, 32, of North Hollywood and turned them over to the doctor, who now lives in San Francisco.

Vassar-educated Helen is now married to a 25-year-old machinist, Richard Spiegel. Dr. Harris alleged that the health and welfare of his children were jeopardized because they were not properly cared for by his ex-wife. He won custody of Cathleen, 8; Charles, 7; Christopher, 5; Courtney, 4, and Collin, 3.

Judge Sheldon ruled that the children could spend one month during the summer with their mother, and she would be permitted to visit them in San Francisco on Aug. 15, Dec. 15 and April 15.

OBITUARIES

Taxidermist Dies Of Injuries

Leslie J. Jonas, one of five Jonas Brothers of a world-renowned taxidermist firm, died in a local hospital Tuesday as a result of injuries suffered in a May 30 accident. Rising from a violent dream to which he was subject, Jonas lunged and hit his head on a desk, causing a severe concussion.

Jonas, 72, was born in Budapest, Hungary, and came to this country when he was about 40. He was a widower and had lived at 330 Edgewood avenue in Mill Valley for a year and a half.

Birds were his main interest in taxidermy, and examples of his work are in museums in large cities in this country, including San Francisco, and abroad. He continued to prepare birds at his home here, and frequently had groups of children in to see his work.

In keeping with his interests, his family has requested that memorial contributions be made in his name to the Junior Museum of San Rafael.

Jonas had a secondary interest of speculating on the stock market, and went in to the stock exchange in San Francisco for his own and clients' interests every day until the day of his accident.

Surviving is a son, Leslie C. Jonas, of the Mill Valley address, and two of the original five brothers, Coloman in Denver, and Louis in New York City. Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Zella Benslyn of England and Ethel Jonas of Budapest, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Russell and Gooch Chapel in Mill Valley at 2 p.m. on Friday. Interment will be in Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

Emma M. Boyen Services Held

Private funeral services were held at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary for Emma M. Boyen, daughter of a pioneer Marin family, who died Monday in a rest home in Larkspur. Miss Boyen, 78, had been ill for a long time.

She was born in a house which is still standing on Greenwood avenue in San Rafael. Her father owned a brewery in the area, but when he died the family moved to Latham street in San Rafael.

Miss Boyen was a member and past noble grand of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge 112 of San Rafael and of the First Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by a brother, Henry Boyen, in San Francisco, and a niece, Mrs. Ethel Porteous of Fairfax. Her parents were the late Henry and Dorothea Boyen.

Burial was in Mt. Tamalpais Memorial Park.

Edward Kennedy Rites Tomorrow

Private funeral services for Edward M. Kennedy of Mill Valley will be held tomorrow morning at the Russell and Gooch chapel in Mill Valley.

Kennedy, 65, a self-employed public accountant, died unexpectedly Tuesday at his home at 87 Corte Madera avenue, after a heart attack.

N native of Iowa, he was an accomplished musician and was a bandmaster in the Navy during World War I.

His only survivor is his wife, Millie, of the Mill Valley address.

Interment will follow the services at Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Ex-Fairfax Man Dies In Vallejo

Norman L. Bryan, former resident of Fairfax, died yesterday in a Vallejo hospital at the age of 42 from cancer. He had been ill for several months.

Bryan's business dealt with automotive parts and he was formerly with Chansler Lyon Motor Parts in San Rafael. He was a native of Montana.

He is survived by his wife, Lois, and two children, Karen, 16, and Norman Jr., 18.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at Twin Chapels in Vallejo.

Montecito Shop Center Sets Grand Opening

More than $3,000 in prizes, including an El Toro class sailboat, will be given away free as Montecito Shopping Center in San Rafael goes all out to welcome the public to the newest and largest commercial center in town.

The grand opening is set for tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday, with singers, dancers and variety artists from all over the Bay Area performing for all ages.

The center is located on nine acres of land on Third street (San Pedro road) just east of United Markets. The immense parking area, lighted at night, can hold 500 cars.

Montecito Properties, Inc., built the two-and-one-half million-dollar development at the site formerly occupied by the San Rafael Municipal Yacht Harbor.

Yachting facilities will not be entirely lost. Goodman Builders Emporium, which will be the biggest of the grand openers, is planning to build 100 yachting berths on the canal side of the store. Customers will then be able to flock to the shopping center by land or by sea.

The giant commercial center boasts a variety of services and merchandise that will make it a "one-stop shopping center." Goodman Builders Emporium will have everything from the smallest household item to outdoor and sports gear such as wading pools and water skis. You can also get lumber, household and garden needs of all kinds, and sports and recreation equipment.

For boatsmen and fishermen, the Goodman Boat Emporium will have 150 to 200 new and used boats to fit every need.

Other stores include cleaners, barber shop, confectionery store, beauty shop and a liquor store.

But this isn't half the razzle-dazzle that is promised for grand opening days.

Lovely Dale Beck of Terra Linda, "Pirate Girl," will be there to help distribute the last of the 20,000 keys that have been distributed to the public. Five hundred of those keys will open treasure chests at the shopping center, entitling the lucky holders to valuable prizes.

Balloons will be given to the kiddies, and door prizes every hour.

Entertainers include Ralph Mathis, brother of famed singer Johnny Mathis. Other entertainment will include singing, dancing, bongo drums, a ventriloquist and musicians.

Entertainment is set for 7 to 9 tomorrow night, and 1 to 3 p.m. both Saturday and Sunday.

Purity Store, Crocker Anglo Bank, and Standard Service Station are already a part of the shopping center. Goodman Builders Emporium is in the building just east of Purity. The next building with a dome-shaped roof is being divided for tenants still not named. And the Goodman Boat Emporium will be located on the eastern end of the center.

Three more buildings are planned in the shopping center. Montecito officials are still negotiating for tenants, with hopes of getting a major department store to come to San Rafael.

Marin Army Reservists To Take Training

A Marin delegation of Army reserve officers and men, led by two colonels, will head for Camp Roberts next week for two weeks of intensive summer field training with the 91st Division.

Attending from Marin will be Col. Rafael G. Dufficy of San Rafael division surgeon; Col. Ralph Martindale of Corte Madera, commanding officer of the 362nd Regiment; Maj. John Ward of Sausalito, special services officer; Capt. Byron G. Framsted of San Rafael, division information officer; Cpl. William Young, Pfc. William Kiehl and Pfc. Michael Halloran, all of San Rafael, and Pvt. Gary Bond of Larkspur.

All attend the 91st Division's reserve training each Thursday at the Presidio of San Francisco.

For the first time this summer, the 91st Division will devote its two-week session to its new mission of training several thousand men.

Prior to its recent reorganization, the 91st's mission was to serve as a combat unit in case of mobilization. This summer, the men will be taught to serve as instructors, able to move into a military center and train 10,000 men in a short time.

The main body of troops will train at Camp Roberts as in previous years.

But this year, other elements of the division with specialized missions will get instruction at Ft. Lewis, Wash.; Tule Ordnance Depot, Utah, Ft. Ord and Camp Irwin.

This is the 12th consecutive summer encampment since the division reactivation in 1947. The division is commanded by Maj. Gen. Stuart D. Menist, San Francisco.

The Marin reserves will be back July 12.

Guidance Group Honors Marinite

Joseph D. Garguilo, faculty chairman of student activities at Novato High School and a charter president of the Guidance and Counseling Alumni Assn. of San Francisco State College, has been awarded a certificate of appreciation by the alumni group.

The certificate, presented Garguilo at an association-sponsored conference last week in San Francisco, states: "In appreciation for untiring efforts in the creation and development of this organization."

The association was organized two years ago, but adopted a constitution only last year. At last week's conference, 1,200 persons attending donated $1,800 in support of a scholarship fund for graduate students in guidance and counseling at San Francisco State. Fifteen Marin residents are members of the association.

Garguilo is temporarily employed with the Independent-Journal as a substitute district manager for the circulation department.

Plumbers Get Raises Under New Contract

Forty-eight plumbing contractors in Marin County are affected by a contract signed yesterday with United Association Local Union 38, Plumbing and Pipe Fitting Industry.

The three-year contract increases wages $1.05 an hour and calls for another 76 cents an hour in fringe benefits. It goes into effect July 1.

The agreements signed yesterday with the Associated Plumbing Contractors of Marin, Sonoma and Mendocino Counties and with the Plumbing and Heating Mechanical Contractors Assn. of Northern California will cover approximately 1,700 union members.

A new contract was unsigned yesterday between the union and the Associated Plumbing Contractors of San Francisco, said Joseph Mazzola, union business manager in San Francisco. The union is notifying its members not to work for any contractors of this group unless they sign the new contract by July 1, he said. The present contract expires Tuesday.

The new contract will raise the hourly wage from the present $3.82 to $4.14. It will reach $4.57 an hour in July, 1961.

It provides for an additional paid holiday, the employee's birthday, and increases employer contributions to health and welfare plans, pension and convalescence funds.

Employers now pay 46 cents an hour in fringe benefits. This will be increased to 76 cents under the new contract.

Also tomorrow and Saturday evenings, the Sausalito Little Theater will continue its summer melodrama season with the classic production "The Drunkard," preceded by olios.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Gate Playhouse will open a series of childrens' plays with the presentation of Hans Christian Andersen's "The Red Shoes."

Ailing Satchmo Takes Turn For Worse, Doctors Report

SPOLETO, Italy (UPI)—Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong took a turn for the worse last night in his bout with bronchial pneumonia complicated by heart trouble, doctors said today.

A communique issued by doctors in Spoleto said the jazz king "encountered a crisis" around 2 a.m. although he had been thought recovering from an attack of pneumonia suffered earlier this week.

The doctors said by 7 a.m. his condition was "stationary" and that he showed only "slight improvement" by 10:40 a.m.

A doctor summoned urgently to Armstrong's bedside during the night said the crisis came when the serious bronchial condition worsened with "cardiac disturbances."

The 59-year-old musician was reported well on the road to recovery yesterday and he laughed and joked with a horde of visitors to his bedroom.

Tam Valley Fire Budget Approved

Tamalpais Valley Fire District commissioners have approved a $29,155 budget for the coming year after a public hearing at the firehouse.

The figure compares with a budget of $27,717 for the current year.

Board Chairman J. Arthur Stuber said that the commissioners hope to retain the present 76-cent tax rate in spite of budget increases. Expected increase in property valuations in the district would cover the difference, he said.

He Tuned To Trouble

DOERUN, Ga. (AP) — Police Chief C. L. Hall's ear for music helped catch a bank burglar. Hall heard a radio playing in the coat of a young man and asked him where he got it. The youth said he took the radio as security for a $1.50 loan from a friend. The friend admitted to Hall that he had taken the radio from the bank when he was unable to break into the vault.

Lutheran Official Sees No Hope For Union

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Rev. Paul C. Empie, executive director of the National Lutheran Council, says there appears no hope of ever having a union of Lutheran churches in the United States.

Here to address the Lutheran Missouri Synod convention, Dr. Empie told a news conference yesterday the doctrine adopted officially by the convention Tuesday spiked any chance of unification.

The Missouri Synod resolution requires all pastors, teachers and professors in the church to abide by a statement of doctrine adopted in 1932.

The doctrine rejects the evolutionary theory of man's origin, holds against a theocratic state, a secular church and "millennialism" theories predicting spectacular changes before "the general resurrection on Judgment Day." The grace and power of God alone work conversion, not man's co-operation, the doctrine states.

The convention voted yesterday against joining the Lutheran World Federation—an affiliate claiming four-fifths of the world's more than 70 million Lutherans—at least until 1962.

Delegates also rejected a proposal that its members could become Masons.

$15,000 Investment Grows Considerably

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Albert Oppenheimer left his wife, Hilda, a $15,000 life insurance policy when he died in 1924.

Mrs. Oppenheimer died in October at 83 and her estate's inventory, filed in superior court yesterday, was valued at $441,246. All of it was from stock investments with the $15,000 her husband left.

Newspaper Strike Comes To End At St. Louis

St. Louis, Mo. (UPI)—Stereotypers today ended a strike which suspended publication of St. Louis' two daily newspapers for two weeks.

Stereotypers Union Local 8 pulled down its picket lines after its membership voted unanimously late last night to end the strike.

Night shift composing room workers began reporting for work immediately, and the editorial staff of the afternoon St. Louis Post-Dispatch was called to prepare the paper's first edition.

Richard G. Baumhoff, an official of the Pulitzer Publishing Co. said the Post-Dispatch would publish a 48-page paper today. Its first edition normally comes off the presses about noon.

Probation Officer Would Try Kids In Criminal Court

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A former director of the California Youth Authority feels that some of the more serious 16 and 17-year-old offenders should be tried in criminal courts.

Karl Holton, now a Los Angeles County probation officer, told a California Probation, Parole and Correctional Assn. meeting here that many youths are "too doggone tough to fiddle with."

"I'd send them to criminal court where they belong and let them take their chances," Holton said.

Superior Court Judge Russell S. Waite of Riverside County defended the juvenile court system as it now operates.

Waite said many youths get into trouble just to attract attention and would relish puting on a public show before a jury.

He said the future of a child "is not a proper subject for 12 housewives to decide."

Best wishes for success to . . .

2 Marinites Elected At Girls' State

Shirley McClure, daughter of Mrs. Barbara McClure of 2431 Mar East, Tiburon, today took her place as controller of a mock state at the 1959 Girls' State at the Davis campus of the University of California.

She and other top officers were chosen yesterday.

Shirley, 16, is Redwood High School's representative at the 16th annual event. She was vice president of her junior class, is a singer, and is president of the school's drama club.

Linda Farley of Downey was named governor. Janet McDonnell of Mill Valley was named to the supreme court.

2 To Study Land Need For School

Supt. Frank L. Lucas of San Rafael schools and architect Carl F. Gromme of San Rafael were asked to figure out exactly what Coleman School would need in additional land if it were to expand on property now owned by Dominican Convent and College.

A representative of the Dominican Sisters said they would need a specific proposal before they could give the San Rafael schools an answer. The special committee studying Coleman School expansion delegated this job to Lucas and Gromme on Monday night.

The San Rafael Board of Education was considering a Coleman School upper grade annex opposite San Rafael High School when parents in the Coleman area raised a storm of protest, and suggested that additional land be bought in Dominican's Forest Meadows to expand Coleman School at its present site.

A survey of the area served by Coleman School showed that there were 343 vacant lots, which when built on would probably increase enrollment at the Coleman School by 210 youngsters.

Larkspur Council Will Study Budget Tonight

The Larkspur City Council will hold an adjourned meeting tonight at 8 o'clock to review a preliminary 1959-60 municipal budget of $275,286 proposed by City Manager Ronald E. Piper.

Also on the agenda is a public hearing on an appeal by Dr. Ralph E. Erickson from a decision of the city planning commission.

Dr. Erickson was denied business rezoning of a residential lot in the triangle formed by Magnolia avenue, Murray lane and Estelle avenue. He hopes to build a shop for Katherine Eubanks, Larkspur floral decorator.

The commission vote was 3-2 in favor of the rezoning, one vote shy of the four-fifths majority needed for approval.

City Engineer John C. Oglesby is expected to submit plans for construction of an access road from Magnolia avenue to the new Larkspur school, a distance of about 700 feet.

The budget proposed exceeds the current budget by $43,229, but Piper is recommending no increase in the tax rate of $1.63 per $100 of assessed valuation. (Property owners outside the city sanitary district would have a $1 tax rate.)

Piper estimates Larkspur's 1959-60 assessed valuation at $7,773,347, an increase of $334,737.

A breakdown of budget headings shows these proposed expenditures: General government, $32,643; police protection, $29,928; fire protection, $36,520; building inspection, $2,765; sanitation, $35,294; streets, $110,099; library, $8,937, and park and recreation, $7,100.

Attorney Opens Novato Office

Attorney Robert Carrow, 25, has opened a law office in Novato—his first since graduation from Stanford Law School a year ago.

Carrow, a bachelor residing at Black Point, said he decided on Novato while stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base as a member of the Air Force reserve. He passed the state bar examination last September.

The new office is at 1211 Grant avenue.

Prior to attending Stanford, Carrow attended the University of Minnesota, where he was editor of the law review.

At Stanford, he was a committee chairman of the America Law Students Assn. and a member of Phi Delta Phi fraternity.

Nature Exhibit Set At Art-Garden Fair

Aspects of conservation and nature in Marin, ranging from the county's parks and shells to its beneficial reptiles, will be portrayed in an educational exhibit at the Marin Art and Garden Fair opening a five-day run in Ross next Wednesday at 6 p.m.

Under general direction of Mrs. Calvin K. Terwilliger of Mill Valley and Mrs. Margaret B. Best of Kentfield, both leaders of Marin conservation and nature groups, the following organizations and interests will participate in the pictorial display arranged in the Northgate Antique Shop building on the Art and Garden Center grounds:

Marin Audubon Society, Junior Audubon Society, Marin Conservation League, Marin Municipal Water District, Marin Nature Group, California State Parks, Marin County Parks, Marin Rod and Gun Club, U. S. Forest Service, Junior Museum of Marin, California Department of Fish and Game, and Pt. Reyes seashore recreation area.

The exhibit will acquaint visitors with Marin's mammals, shells and game birds.

Marin Audubon Society will show colored slides and films daily at 1, 3:30 and 7 p.m.

B. K. Dunshee, prominent Marin conservationist, will be in charge of the panel of photographs and maps on the Pt. Reyes area as a recreation region. Mrs. Dunshee, vice president of the Marin Conservation League, will be on hand for her group with leaflets, books, photographs and maps to inform visitors of achievements and projects of the organization.

Mrs. Best, besides assisting in the general chairmanship of the total exhibit, will be in charge of the Marin Nature Group's exhibit on insects of the county.

Decorating the upper deck of the building will be cutouts of the general outlines of native trees of Marin with detailed silhouettes of their leaf patterns and cone or seed pods.

Forest Fire Controlled In Sonoma

SANTA ROSA (UPI)—A forest fire which roared across 2,500 acres of Sonoma County redwood trees and brush was brought under complete control at 6 a.m. today.

Some 300 weary fire-fighters stopped the blaze's spread yesterday and battled through the night before they met success.

Mop-up operations were under way as crews sent control line fires toward the encircled crown flames.

Assistant fire dispatcher Donald McMurry of the state Division of Forestry said a 25-mile fire break around the mountainous area held tight 40 miles northwest of here.

Truck Rams Cars, Homes; Three Killed

DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—A semi-trailer grain truck speeding out of control down a hill without brakes hit a car and smashed into two homes last night. Three persons died and four others were injured.

The impact sent the truck's heavy load of grain through the wall of the first house and into another, around the corner.

Killed were Ralph Redlin, 50, Ellendale, N.D., the truck driver and his wife, Ruby, 33, and Martin Cich, 26, Superior, Wis., whose car was struck by the truck.

Seriously injured were Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Widell, occupants of the second house hit by the truck. They were in their living room watching television when the truck smashed into the front of their home.

Also injured were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hayes, who live around the corner from the Widell home. Mrs. Hayes was struck in the back by an oil drum carried with the plummeting grain through their house. Hayes suffered an arm injury.

BULLETIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Tonight's heavyweight championship fight between Champion Floyd Patterson and Challenger Ingemar Johansson has been postponed until tomorrow night because of weather. Later details on page one.

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson weighed 182 pounds and Swedish challenger Ingemar Johansson 196 for their 15-round title at Yankee Stadium tonight. Promoter Bill Rosensohn said the bout would be held as scheduled "if humanly possible."

Rosensohn said the fight definitely was "on" despite a steady morning rain and threat of more showers during the day and night.

"The forecast is no more encouraging for tomorrow," he added. "We will have the fight tonight if humanly possible."

The promoter said he would meet with newsmen this afternoon for a review of the situation.

The Weather Bureau was not encouraging. It forecast "a chance of showers off and on during the day and night."

Rosenshon said he already has $500,000 in the till from ticket sales, the break-even point, but added that a postponement would complicate the closed television circuit plans.

The fight will not be telecast on home screens.

Patterson, the 24-year-old champion from New York, is spotting the undefeated 26-year-old European titleholder 14 pounds.

With the closed circuit telecast to theaters and arenas, coast-to-coast radio (ABC) and the movies thrown in, Patterson figures to make between $400,000 and $500,000 and Johansson from $150,000 to $200,000.

SWEDE CONFIDENT

The financial reports gladdened Johansson, a solid businessman with varied interests, but he was more concerned with his ring business with Patterson.

The lopsided odds of 5-1, the picks of most of the experts for Patterson and criticism of his unique training methods—he didn't unleash his "thunderbolt" right once—apparently haven't dismayed Ingermar.

"If I hit him with my right—and I am confident I will—he will go down and out," said the optimistic Swede. Johansson speaks of his right hand as if it was not part of him but a gun instead.

"I haven't been as eager for any fight since I knocked out Archie Moore (in five rounds, 1956) to win the title," said Patterson. "He is the No. 1 contender and I want to beat the best."

CHAMP VICIOUS

The champion has been vicious and sensational in his workouts as Johansson has been tame and dull. Floyd has left no doubt that he hopes to win quickly. For the first time he has shown signs of being irked by criticism of the calibre of his title opponents. And for the time time he has become mean and surly, according to his trainer, Dan Florio.

Johansson has been idle since he flattened California Eddie Machen in the first round at Goteborg, Sweden, last Sept. 14. That made his record 21-0, including 14 knockouts.

Even if he has that great right, Ingemar may have trouble landing it squarely against the elusvie, fast moving, bobbing and weaving champion.

Johansson, a strong, 198-pounder, is accustomed to fighting the standup, classic style fighters of the British-European school. They don't go in much for body punching.

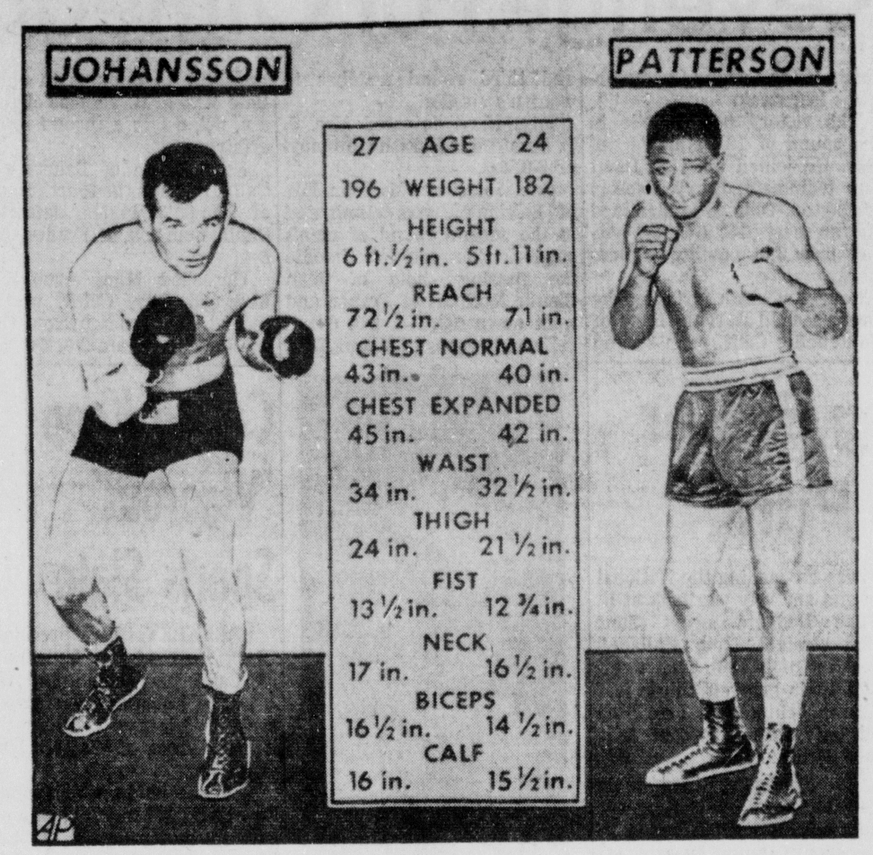
DIFFERENT STYLE

Patterson's style is vastly different. He holds his gloves in front of his face, peek-a-boo style, and his forearms protect his body. From that position he strikes out with flashing fists, aiming searing combinations to the body and head.

This observer believes Patterson will cut down his rival with these punishing body blows in one round. They will be using the thin, six-ounce gloves, instead of the eight-ouncers Patterson used against London.

Johansson would have to nail Patterson square and quick. But he doesn't have the speed and finesse to match the champ.

Although heavyweight fight fever gripped the city little betting action was reported on the Broadway bourse. What wagering was done was mostly on knockouts. It was 3-1 that the fight wouldn't go the route, 2-1 that Patterson would win by a kayo, and 6-1 against Johansson stopping Patterson.



Billy Conn Says 'Ingo' Has Chance Friday Night

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—There was a haunted look in the eyes of the handsome, brown-haired man which emphasized the authority of his voice.

"When a guy has a right hand like that, you've always got to give him a chance."

Billy Conn spoke as an expert.

He was talking about Ingemar Johansson, the Swede whose hopes as he tries to take the heavyweight championship from Floyd Patterson tonight depend on the hammer of Thor which he carries in his right hand.

Conn knows all about the big right hand and what it can do to a guy's hopes and dreams. It's a weapon which could blast Patterson off the heavyweight throne; the atom smasher of the boxing business which twice blasted Pittsburgh Billy's dream of taking this same championship.

"Patterson is fast and you have to give him the edge," Conn said as he looked 18 years back into the frustrating past. "But speed isn't always enough, particularly if the other guy has that big right hand."

Conn knows. Because on another New York night in June of 1941, Billy had the heavyweight championship of the world within his grasp. Then the right hand of Joe Louis bulleted through the night and tore it from his hands.

Billy was a boxer; one of the best. And through 12 furious rounds he held command although he had gone in a three-to-one underdog. As he sat there waiting for the 13th round, Judge Marty Monroe had him ahead, seven rounds to four with one even. Referee Eddie Joseph had him on top, seven rounds to five and the other judge had him all even.

"Three rounds to go," Billy remembers. "Then the right hand."

Louis crushed a right hand to the chin and Billy Conn, the almost-champion of the world, dropped to the floor as if shot through the head.

It was a great fight, that night in 1941. So tremendous that all during the war years, while Billy and Joe both were in khaki, the sports world dreamed of the rematch. Five years later, on another June night in Yankee Stadium—where Ingo and Patterson match shots tonight—they finally went at it again.

Again the right hand took him out.

Time ran out for Billy in the eighth round. It was the same right hand, and with the same result. Conn toppled over, flat on his back, and the farce of what might have been was ended. So you can understand the authority in his voice, despite the wistful quality, when Billy Conn says:

"When a guy has a right hand like that, you've always got to give him a chance."

New Lineup Pleases Rigney, He'll Stick With It Awhile

The San Francisco Giants, with a revamped lineup and lots of confidence, went into the series finale today with the Pittsburgh Pirates holding a 2-1 edge and the dependable Stu Miller on the mound.

Miller, the National League's earned run champion in 1958, will be faced by no-hit star Harvey Haddix.

If the Giants can win this one, they will have consolidated their position just behind the league leading Milwaukee Braves with the pressure from Pittsburgh somewhat lessened.

With a new lineup on the field, the Giants won a wind blown puzzler yesterday, 4-3.

SPENCER RESTS

"We'll use this new lineup again and hope it works," said Manager Bill Rigney. "Daryl Spencer needed a rest at second base so we put in Danny O'Connell and he came through fine with two hits and some good fielding. We also Eddie Bressoud at short and his fielding was flawless.

"Dropping Jim Davenport to seventh in the hitting order and putting Willie Mays in at second batting position seemed to work out too. Willie got two scratch hits, but otherwise hit the ball well."

Yesterday's game ended on a frustrating note, at least as far as the Pirates were concerned. Trailing by one run going to the top of the ninth Pittsburgh tied the score on a walk and Bill Virdon's single. But Virdon was destined to be the game's goat.

Walks to Hobie Landrith and Davenport, a sacrifice and an intentional walk to pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes filled the bases with one down in the bottom of the ninth.

Leon Wagner then came up to pinch hit for relief hurler Mike McCormick. Leon hit a high fly to the right side of the diamond. It started out to the outfield but the wind blew it closer and closer to the infield with Virdon chasing it from his centerfield position. He finally collided with second baseman Bill Mazeroski just as the ball hit his glove and dropped to the ground. By this time umpires ruled it an infield fly with the batter automatically out. With the ball on the ground, pinch runner Felipe Alou romped home with the winning run and Virdon was charged with an error.

MAC THE WINNER

The game had started as a pitchers' battle between Johnny Antonelli and Bob Friend. Johnny, looking for his 11th victory, was leading 3-1 going into the top of the eighth when he ran into trouble. Before the game was over San Francisco had used three moundsmen and Pittsburgh four. McCormick was the winner, pitching only one inning. The loser was Bennie Daniels, who threw only seven pitches.

Dick Stuart hit his 15th homer of the season in the second with none on—a tremendous clout over the left centerfield fence. Willie Kirkland hit his 12th over the right center wall in the sixth—another tape measure job of about 450 feet.

SCANLON WINS ON SUPERIOR INFIGHTING

CHICAGO (AP) — Italian lightweight champion Mario Veechiato wants another U. S. fight as soon as he can get it.

"I need another fight in this country," he said through an interpreter after a unanimous 10-round loss to Bobby Scanlon of San Francisco Wednesday night.

"I wasn't acclimated. I need to learn infighting like Americans do it."

Scanlon's superior infighting piled up points in the televised bout at Chicago Stadium.

The Italian outweighed Scanlon 136 pounds to 135.

Scanlon's victory gave him 33-3-1 record. Veechiato is 43-4-6.

WIMBLEDON CHAMPIONSHIPS

Sweet Revenge For Olmedo

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Alex Olmedo of Peru and Los Angeles, star of the U.S. Davis Cup team, squared accounts with Ramanathan Krishnan today by defeating the young Indian 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5 in the third round of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships.

Krishnan, 22-year-old Davis Cup player from Madras, had beaten Olmedo in the semi-finals of the London Championships last week.

The victory put Olmedo in the round of 16 in men's singles. He joined his U.S. Davis Cup teammate, Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, who slammed out an easy 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 victory over Jan Leschly of Denmark.

Four American girls, led by fourth-seeded Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., won second and third round matches in women's singles.

Miss Hard defeated Mrs. J. L. Deloford, a British club player 6-0, 6-2.

One American, Malcolm Fox of Baltimore, was eliminated in the second round of men's singles. Fox couldn't handle the passing shots of Jean Claude Molinari of France and went down 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Karol Fageros of Miami, Fla., required 40 minutes to eliminate Mrs. A. H. Thomas of Britain, 6-2, 6-1 in a second round affair.

Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., reached the fourth round of women's singles, defeating Paula Courteix of France, 6-4, 6-4.

Unseeded Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., won a second round match from Deidre Catt of Britain 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Bums Doing Better In Freakish Park

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

It begins to look as if the Dodgers finally have forgotten cozy Ebbets Field and have accepted the Coliseum, their freakish ball-yard, as a home.

Ebbets was no model of what a major league ball park should be, of course, but the Brooklyn bandbox fit the Dodgers like a Bardot sweater. It was there that they put away their best string of pennants, winning four in five years from 1952 through 1956.

Last year they shifted to Los Angeles and barely played. .500 ball while finishing seventh, missing the first division for the first time in 14 years.

That was last year. At the moment they're 22-16 at the Coliseum for a .579 percentage that ranks second only to Milwaukee' .636 (21-12), and the Braves are leading the National League any way you look at it.

The Dodgers swept their third straight from Philadelphia last night, 9-6. That tightened their grip on third, just a game behind San Francisco and only three short of first place Milwaukee.

The Braves retained their two-game lead by beating St. Louis 4-0, in a game ended in the seventh inning by rain, after San Francisco had defeated Pittsburgh 4-3. Cincinnati whipped the Chicago Cubs 5-0.

A two-run homer by Wally Moon, extending his hitting streak to 17 games, broke a 6-6 tie in the sixth inning for the Dodgers, who had blown a 6-1 lead. Don Demeter drove in three runs for Los Angeles with a double, triple and his 15th homer. Roger Craig, now 2-0 since his recall from the minors last week, was the winner, but needed Clem Labine's four-hit, shutout relief.

THOMAS HOMERS

Wally Post and Valmy Thomas homered for the last place Phils. Don Cardwell (1-5) was the loser in relief.

Joey Jay, Milwaukee's young right-hander, gave up eight hits and three walks, but gained his first victory since May 19 after Hank Aaron belted his 20th homer, with two on, in a four-run first. Jay, now 3-5, had lost four in a row.

Cal To Keep 'Vigorous' Sports Slate

BERKELEY (AP) — President Clark Kerr of the University of California said today the Bears will continue a vigorous athletic program within the Athletic Assn. of Western Universities.

The association, which comes into being Wednesday, was organized by California, UCLA, Washington and Southern California as the Pacific Coast Conference disbanded. Kerr commented in a statement:

"This entrance into a new phase of our athletic history provides an appropriate occasion for a reaffirmation of the larger principles of the university's position on athletics.

"Our experience suggests that there are enough students with the combination of high scholastic and athletic ability, who are desirous of obtaining an education that challenges their full talents, to insure that the university can operate a strong inter-collegiate athletic program.

"I wish to assure members of the university community and friends that we shall continue a vigorous intercollegiate athletic program consistent with continued adherence to our high academic standards."

He added that admission standards will continue to apply to all students, athletes and non-athletes alike.

Oriole Bunts Make Indians Bite Dust

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's something about a Baltimore bunt that makes Cleveland's Tribe a bunch of dead Injuns.

Remember when the Orioles gained a share of the American League lead two weeks ago? They did it when the Indians goofed twice on a bunt that scored three runs.

Last night the Orioles were at it again, jumping into second place, a half-game behind the front-stumbling Indians, when an error on a bunt gave them three ninth-inning runs for a 7-4 victory at Cleveland.

It was the fifth defeat in seven games for the Indians while Baltimore, scoring its first four runs on solo homers by Gus Triandos, Walt Dropo, Billy Gardner and Bob Nieman, leapfrogged the Chicago White Sox with its sixth victory in eight games.

The White Sox skidded to third with a 4-2 defeat by Washington, their sixth loss in eight games. Kansas City barred New York's chance for a third place tie by beating the Yankees 4-3. Boston held Detroit in fifth, handing the cooled-off Tigers their fourth straight defeat, 4-2.

SCORE CHASED

The Orioles opened their winning ninth with singles by Gardner and pinch-hitter Gene Woodling that chased southpaw Herb Score. Both scored when reliever Dick Brodowski threw wild after fielding a bunt by Bob Boyd, hitting for winner Hec Brown (5-2). Boyd went to third on the error and scored on Jim Finigan's sacrifice fly.

Brown, now 4-0 against the Indians since 1956, gave up only five hits, two of them homers by Tito Francona and Minnie Minoso. Billy Loes saved it with a perfect mop-up in the ninth.

The Oriole home runs came off Score (7-5), who has allowed 17 this season, 12 in his last 32 innings.

The A's, who had lost seven of nine to the Yankees, stopped that nonsense behind the seven-hit pitching of southpaw Bud Daley (7-3). Dick Williams figured in all the Kansas City runs, hitting a two-run homer in the fifth against loser Jim Bonstad and singling along with Bill Tuttle and Roger Maris for the clincher in the seventh against reliever Jim Coates.

CHISOX FUMBLE

The last-place Senators beat the usually sure-fielding White Sox with three unearned runs in the ninth. Singles by Jim Lemon, Roy Sievers and Ken Aspromonte, plus errors by Luis Aparicio and Earl Torgeson, tagged Dick Donovan (4-5) with the defeat. Tex Clevenger (4-1) was the winner.

Don Buddin and Pete Runnels each had three hits for Boston and had RBI singles, in a winning two-run seventh against loser Don Mossi (5-3). Mike Fornieles' perfect 2⅔ relief innings saved it for Jack Harshman (2-6). Ted Williams was hitless, but drove in a run with a sacrifice fly for the Red Sox.

The BULLPEN

Tomy Lee's Owner Created A Lot Of Suckers In Cinema Handicap

CONNOLLY

Over the years I have "opened" every major horse racing track in California. I have rubbed elbows with the best and the worst from "Doc" Strub at Santa Anita to Hiccups O'Toole who would tout every horse in every race if he could find enough ears to bend.

I've been known to put a deuce on the nose on some great race horses as well as a number of fugitives from the dog meat packers. And I still get a thrill from the sound of the starting bell and the call, "And there they go!"

But I still can't understand the blind hope of the millions of fans who have made horse racing — or more exactly horse betting—the number one spectator sport in the world.

Recently at Hollywood Park the feature race was the Cinema Handicap, worth $30,200 to the winner and a total purse of over $60,000. All the publicity blurbs featured a great contest between Fred Turner Jr.'s Kentucky Derby winner Tomy Lee and the Whitney Stable's Silver Spoon, winner of last year's Santa Anita Derby.

OVER HALF a million dollars was wagered at the track on the one race, and Tomy Lee was backed off the board at the odds of ninety-five cents to the dollar. With this load on his back, Tomy Lee ran such a poor race that he came in sixth in a field of eight, and in so doing bumped the only other contender, Old Fols, so hard that the latter ran dead last.

Silver Spoon won in a walk by over four lengths and paid the fat price of $6.40 to his backers. So you bet your money and you win or you lose. But this is not the whole story.

The race was really run the week before the actual contest. Jockey Willie Shoemaker was scheduled to ride Tomy Lee, but decided to fly east and ride Sword Dancer in the Belmont Stakes. (He won the $125,000 affair). Owner Turner knew from past experience that Shoemaker was the only jockey who could handle his horse. Now listen to his own words:

"TOMY LEE was entered against my better judgment and AT THE PLEA OF THE RACE TRACK MANAGEMENT. I knew he couldn't win the race with a new rider up."

Turner says he advised his trainer not to enter Tomy Lee in the Cinema, but relented when track officials called him and urged that his horse be allowed to race.

The owner, the trainer and the track all knew that Tomy Lee would not win, but they needed his name for publicity and to give Silver Spoon some betting competition.

BUT DID they tell the betting public? Hah! Nearly 50,000 fans took it in stride, poured in a total of three and a half million dollars of wagers for the day and went home to lay plans for their "big killing next week."

This, gentle reader, is called "improving the breed of horses in California." Old P. T. Barnum was all wrong; there MUST be more than one sucker born every minute.

Move over, pal!

HANLEY'S REPORT

Rigney Plans To Use Fisher Often

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

Before the enemy compiles a complete book on Ed Fisher, Bill Rigney intends to use the 23-year-old rookie knuckle-baller as often as possible in the regular starting assignments of Giant pitchers.

It is Rigney's most fervent wish that the former University of Oklahoma right-hander can quickly notch two or three more wins before the seven other National League teams complete their index of all his pitches.

Without detracting in the slightest from Fisher's poised debut Monday against the Pirates, the power-hitters from Pittsburg did not know much about Fisher except his knuckler.

Now they know he has a better than average fast ball, a slider and a curve to supplement the knuckler which he used once in every four pitches Monday and not with the kind of control satisfactory to him.

A significant comment Fisher made after his victorious big league debut was: "I didn't have as good control of the knuckler as usual—but my fast ball, curve and slider were in the groove."

And another significant statement was added by the wise veteran Jim Hogan who caught Fisher in his first game for the Giants and, incidentally, also made his own debut in a Giant uniform.

"I WAS surprised by his fast ball, said Hogan. "Usually a knuckle ball pitcher has more breaking stuff than speed."

If Fisher's speed made that kind of impression on Hogan, you can be sure that the next batters Fisher faces will be looking for it in addition to the knuckler. The word gets around the league very fast on a pitcher's strength and weakness just as it does on a batter's strong and weak points.

George Sisler, the Pirate batting coach, summed this up tersely when he said:

"We'll know more about him as time goes on."

FISHER developed his fast ball, slider and curve out of necessity because his college baseball coach wouldn't let him throw the knuckler when he pitched for Oklahoma.

His coach thought it was "an old lady's pitch!"

Fisher throws his knuckler from the fingernail tips of his index and second fingers but he does not believes that it alone is responsible for his fast jump to the majoes.

"The biggest factors that make a successful pitiher are experience and control," said the six-foot-two, 200-pounter.

"By control I mean getting ahead of the hitter. Yes, control and experience are most important to a pitcher."

Fisher, lacking any major league experience whatsoever, had superb control against the Pirates. He lagged behind only one batter, Dick Stuart, finally walking him—the only pass he issued in his debut.

THE DIFFERENCE between college and pro ball?

"In college there might be two or three good hitters but in proball there are plenty of them," said tht rookie.

As for his jump to the majors after a year with Corpus Christi and the first half of this season with the little Giants in Phoenix, Fisher said is still a little difficult to believe.

"My wife, Betty, who still is in Phoenix awaiting the arrival of our second baby in two weeks, at first didn't believe it when I told her I had a call to report to San Francisco," he said.

"It is the ambition of all baseball players to be in the major leagues."

Card Fullback Signs

CHICAGO (AP) — Fullback Dean Philpott, sidelined much of his freshman season last year because of injuries, has signed his 1959 contract with the Chicago Cardinals. Philpott was the Cardinals' 11th draft choice last year after a spectacular career at Fresno State.

Permit Sought For Cove Wharf

Capt. E. J. Towle of Corinthian Island, Belvedere, has applied to the Army Corps of Engineers for a permit to construct a wharf 30 feet wide and extending about 35 feet bayward from his property into Belvedere Cove.

The application indicates the wharf would be supported by concrete piling and would include a landing float and gangway.

The application permits the filing of any objections to the proposal, limited to navigation, by July 19.

Trabert Winner Of Marathon Duel With Australian

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—Tony Trabert says, "I'm not tired. Why should I be tired? It's just another tennis match. Just another night's work."

The former U. S. Davis Cup star referred to his 6-8, 28-26, 6-2 marathon win over Australian veteran Frank Sedgman last night in Jack Kramer's $15,000 Tournament of Champions.

The 28-26 duel is considered to be the longest outdoor set in pro tennis history.

Trabert moved into Saturday's semi-finals against pro champion Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles. Gonzales advanced with a 6-3, 6-2 win over Australian rookie Ashley Cooper.

WOMEN VOTERS

League Entertained In Belvedere Home

A day of discussions, luncheon, swimming and sailing at the Belvedere Lagoon home of Mrs. E. Allan Steinau recently climaxed the program year of the League of Women Voters of Mill Valley.

A discussion of the League's role as an action organization was led by Mrs. Samuel Newsom assisted by Mesdames Charles Kelly, James Heassler, Salem Rice and Martin Collor. Special attention was directed to recent calls to action including League opposition to S.B. 562 now on the floor of the lower house in Sacramento, a bill which the League considers a threat to the State civil service system.

Mrs. J. Verne Hawley reviewed the League's support of the implementation of the Short-Doyle act which would provide increased mental health services for Marin County. In a skit, which they had previously given at State League convention, Mesdames Robert Wickersham and Roger Lescohier illustrated the role of parking meters in the state of California Constitution, pointing up the necessity for Constitutional revision.

Review of action at the national level covered League support of Home Rule for the District of Columbia, opposition to re-extension of the federal employee security program to non-sensitive positions and support of the Mutual Security Economic Aid Program.

Of special interest to Peninsula residents was the announcement that workshop under the leadership of Mrs. Steinau will be held in September to discuss state finance—where the money comes from and where it goes. Also considered will be school finances. Other workshops scheduled will be on foreign policy and water resources. Anyone interested is welcome to join the League and participate in these workshops. Further information may be obtained from the membership chairman, Mrs. John Giuliani of Mill Valley.

Mrs. Herbert Lawrence has replaced Mrs. L. M. Wahlquist, who has moved to San Anselmo, as first vice president. Mrs. Pierpont Buck has replaced Mrs. Benton Mathews as public relations chairman. Mrs. Mathews has recently been elected president of the Belvedere Unit of the Reed District Parent Teacher Club.

Alpha Phi Alumnae Hold Swim Party In McCarthy Home

Marin County Alpha Phi alumnae met recently for a luncheon and swimming party at the home of Mrs. Bryan McCarthy in Loch Lomond.

During the short business meeting which preceded festivities, plans were made to attend the Panhellenic luncheon to be held at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross on Wednesday, Aug. 12.

Models from the Alphi Phi group will be Mesdames Edward G. French and D. H. Gabrielsen, who will display clothes from a San Francisco store. Waitresses who volunteered for the luncheon will be Mesdames Philip Cramp and John A. Blakney, a newcomer to the group. Another new member welcomed was Mrs. William C. Gumz.

Attending the party in addition to those named were Mesdames Otto H. Meyer, Walter S. Wright, Erich Kruger, Hugh Downey, A. Robbins Whittlesey, J. Edward Hickerson, Tor Noren and Vernon C. Gustafsson.

Eagle Scouts Are Honored At Reception

The six Explorer Scouts of Mill Valley Troop 28 who became Eagle Scouts Saturday in the Cushing Memorial Theater on Mt. Tamalpais were honored at a reception held afterward in Hammond Hall of the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour.

More than 150 people attended the reception, which was given by mothers of the new Eagle Scouts.

The six Scouts are Lee Donnan, Irving Sutley Jr., Louis Wayers Jr., Jack Martin, Jack Meacham and Bill Bishell.

Mothers acting as hostesses were Mesdames A. M. Donnan, Irving Sutley, Louis Wayers, R. A. Meacham, Thomas Bishell and John Martin.

Assisting them were Mesdames Jack Henderson, A. H. Caldwell Jr., Raymond Cyr, Gladys Bowe, Wynn Brunner and Ernest Brymer.

Jack Locey is Troop 28 scoutmaster, and Prentiss Goldstone is the Explorer adviser.

DECORATIONS of the dances will be in charge of Mrs. Andrew Carrino, seated, who watches as Alan Bovee gives an assist with the balloon decorations for the July 2 dance. Hours for the summer dance will be from 8 to 11 o'clock. (Independent-Journal photos)

Young People Instructed In Mental Ills

Today's teen-agers often display surprising insight into psychological problems, says Edward Linzer, educational director for the National Assn. for Mental Health.

Recently high school boys and girls tried out for parts in a one-act play, "Which Way Out?," designed to explain the problems of mental illness to young people. Says Linzer:

"The youngsters met the subject head-on. There was little real embarrassment and they seemed eager to learn the facts We were extremely pleased, and frankly surprised, at the teen-agers' attitudes. They showed a degree of sympathy that was really quite touching and at the same time they were very positive in condemning the shame and ridicule that adults frequently show toward this disorder."

The association hopes to use the play as an instructional tool in classrooms and before young people's groups all over the country.

Holy Family Guild Hears Of Success

Mrs. Walter Garrett, president of the Holy Family Guild of Marin, gave a resume of the club's activities, for the first half of the year, at the recent meeting.

As a result of kaffee klatches held in areas in the county where the Holy Family Sisters teach Christian doctrine, 225 new members were take into the guild. Many of these are young mothers, and assist the Sisters in transportation of pupils and in teaching. As a result of the luncheon and silent auction held by the Guild in April, a check for $1558 was given the Sisters. The money will aid education of novices in the beautiful new novitiate in Mission San Jose.

During the summer months luncheons will be given by various member of the guild. Two have already taken place; the first at the home of Mrs. Clara Gordon of San Anselmo and the second, by the Novato group, was given at the Rod and Gun Club of the Standard Oil Company in Richmond. Other luncheons will take place in July, August, September and October.

Meetings of the guild will be resumed in October, and according to Mrs. Garrett, plans already are under way for the Christmas party which is given every year at the convent.

Ruegg-Latapie Rites Recited In Berkeley

St. Ambrose's Church in Berkeley was the setting for the recent wedding of Eugenia Louise Latapie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Latapie of San Rafael, formerly of Berkeley, and David C. Ruegg of Berkeley.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. George Caldera of Berkeley and Theodore Ruegg of Reno.

White stock and gladioli were at the altar for the 2 o'clock ceremony with the Rev. Thomas Gallagher officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of white imported peau de soie. The portrait neckline was appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace medallions. Full length sleeves fashioned the fitted bodice swept into a full gored skirt. Appliques of lace detailed the full skirt cascading into a chapel sweep train. An empress coronet of crystals and seed pearls secured the French silk illusion fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, lilies of the valley and white orchids.

Elizabeth Latapie of San Rafael was maid of honor for her sister, and bridesmaids were Joan Karp, the bride's cousin of Oakland; Amalia Querio, the bride's cousin of Albany; Ann Moldenchardt of Berkeley, and Mrs. Donald Trauthen of Georgia.

The honor attendants were gowned alike in azalea peau de soie sheath dresses with matching Dior bandeaux. They carried pink rosebud nosegays.

The bride's mother wore a green peau de soie draped sheath with flower cloche and matching accessories. She had a white orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore an orchid print with white accessories and white orchid.

John Campbell Jr. of Hawaii was best man and ushers were Ronald Pazzi of Hayward; Grady Johnson, Berkeley, Fritz Gaylord, Vallejo, and Phillip Coke of Alameda.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Claremont Hotel.

The bride was graduated from Berkeley High School and the University of California at Santa Barbara where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi Sorority. She is teaching in Oakland schools.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Berkeley High and is attending the University of California where he is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity. He served two years with the U.S. Army in Germany.

Following a wedding trip to Las Vegas, the couple will make their home in Berkeley.

Gals Want Security, But Is That Enough?

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — What do today's young women want in a husband?

"Men who will stay at home, help with the children and go on picnics," says Margaret Mead, anthropologist and author.

"The young women of today feel it's all right for a man to starve himself for art or to pursue some hazardous undertaking, but it's not all right for him to starve his wife and children.

"Wives don't want husbands so interested in a job that they play second fiddle to work."

Miss Mead, author of "And Keep Your Powder Dry" and other books, is a staff member of the Menninger Clinic and Foundation at Topeka, Kan. She visited Columbia as a consultant in the planning of a $2,500,000 construction project at Stephens College.

"Girls marry boys who will take the safe, easy job with tenure and fringe benefits," she says. "In the world we will have to face for another 50 years, that's not enough.

"It doesn't leave room for people to make exciting advances in science, art or exploration."

Miss Mead says a young woman's choice of a husband is influenced by her education. She says the younger generation's addiction to security can be attributed to their parents, who found precious little of it during the depression and World War II.

TERRA LINDA GUILD

New 'Lifesavers For Summer' Are Accredited At Focus Show

The Terra Linda Guild of Sunny Hills saved many a summer life on Tuesday as the honored group at Rickey's popular Fashion Focus poolside luncheon without a single guest budging from a cool glass of iced tea!

Of course, the "Lifesavers for Summer" were not officially endorsed by the American Red Cross. Instead, each was a distinctive vacation fashion from Luana's to make any lifeguard leave his post and follow the attractive Terra Linda Guild member who modeled it.

Tuesday's summer lifesavers came in many shapes and sizes. At each place, guests found mirrored matches, Merle Norman gift cosmetics, cigarettes, key ring, address book and Lifesavers plus a clever programmed paper bag to hold them. Red apples and peppermint Lifesavers perched on tiny trees centering the tables as a reminder that proceeds from the wonderful assortment of Tuesday surprises would be "lifesavers" toward making the Terra Linda Guild's apple booth at the Grape Festival in October bigger and better than ever.

To preserve a summer beauty from perpetual frustration (that is, a closet full of clothes and nothing to wear) Luana's ringed the pool with sun, swim and summer night fashions for vacation fun, not frenzy; Greenbrae Beauty Salon proved summer hair need not resemble wilted lettuce but responds to skillful lifesaving via cut, shampoo and pretty set. To save face under summer sun, Merle Norman performed makeup magic.

"Lifesavers for Summer":

"Deep tan, dazzling swimsuit," Sea Song, Catalina's sky blue, sea green print maillot saronging Mrs. Charles Friend.

"Sports Car, Sleek Separates," white Arnel sharkskin tapers trim beneath a short cropped matching sleeveless top; the accents, Mrs. Ormand Mathews and a flowered cummerbund.

"Mad Money, Merry Cotton" to float from summer to fall, Murray Millman's bold, big cerise and black check; interest points, full skirt, bell sleeves, black cummerbund and Mrs. Robert Pritchard.

"Long Days, Shorter Shorts," white Arnel jersey specifically, teamed with matching sleeveless top and a dashing striped blazer for Mrs. W. C. LaFrenze.

"Beethoven, Black and White," for listening pleasure, Jackie Morgan's rustling full skirted sheer cotton organza in black and white checkerboard plaid; wide belt, wider black collar and Mrs. William Roddy to show it.

"Frosty Fizz, Backyard Beauty," ready for the Fourth, Mrs. Clyde Curley Jr., a Bert Stanley full skirted belle in white speckled red cotton, eye-catching inserts of white ruching at the scooped neck.

"Restful resort, tidy traveler," fresh on arrival, Mrs. Alexander Beaton, checked and double checked in Betty Barclay's black and white sundress chaperoned by a pearl buttoned jacket to make it discreetly a suit.

"Moonlight, Summer Dance," irresistable pink silk organza by Lilli Diamond, tiny rhinestone straps and intricately tiered side draped skirt added allure for Mrs. William Munson.

Next Tuesday, Fashion Focus salutes July 4, and the Noncommissioned Officers' Wives Club of Hamilton Air Force Base, and says: "Be A Star Spangled Beauty," with fashions by Ella Joseph of San Rafael. The luncheons around the pool are open to the public and reservations may be made by calling Rickey's.

Son Of Officer Receives AF Academy Appointment

Klem F. Kalberer Jr., former San Rafael student, and son of the 25th Air Division's deputy for operations, has received a presidential appointment to the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs.

He won the appointment in competition with sons of other active duty servicemen.

Col. Klem Kalberer said he is enthusiastic about his son's plans to enter the Air Force as a career. The son said he was "very happy to get the appointment. I certainly am looking forward to my four years at the academy and to serving as a career officer in the Air Force."

He said he would like to become a fighter interceptor pilot like his father.

Young Kalberer is a 1959 graduate of San Rafael High School.

Marinite Gets Major's Rank

Richard S. Kotite, 32, of Kentfield, who is taking a nuclear engineering course at Monterey while serving in the Army, has been promoted from captain to major, his parents were notified this week.

Major Kotite is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Kotite of 35 Manor road, Kentfield. The elder Kotite operates a delicatessen at Ross Valley Market.

Major Kotite attended Tamalpais High School and College of Marin. He was decorated during his service with the Army during World War II and the Korean War.

England, Ireland and Sweden are the only European nations where motorists drive on the left side of the road.

Youth Convicted Of Burning Jail Inmate

Stanley Sikorski, 18, of Corte Madera, who set fire to a fellow jail inmate's trousers and caused second degree burns, faces a maximum sentence of one year in the county jail for battery.

Sikorski was convicted yesterday by a jury of 10 women and two men, who heard the case before Judge Jordan L. Martinelli of Marin Superior Court. The judge set 11:30 a.m. Monday for sentencing.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Hadden Roth, prosecutor, presented evidence showing that Sikorski rolled a piece of paper and ignited it against the trousers of Mickey Dean Dooley, 28, of Oakland while Dooley slept in the day room. The incident occurred on March 29.

Dooley said he was taken to Ross General Hospital for treatment. The burns took six weeks to heal, and a deep scar still remains, he testified.

Sikorski, represented by Deputy Public Defender Jerome Durham, said he ignited the paper as a prank and meant no harm.

Sikorski was tried on suspicion of felonious assault, but the jury found him guilty of the lesser offense of battery.

Sikorski was in jail on a previous battery charge and for violating a California Youth Authority parole when the incident took place. Dooley was in jail on vagrancy.

Parents Of Quads Facing Eviction

NEW YORK (AP) — Alex and Bessie Kajouras, parents of newborn quadruplets, face eviction next Wednesday from their five-room Brooklyn apartment.

Kajouras, 30, said philosophically: "We can't worry about that now. We've got the kids to think of. Something will work out."

The eviction notice reportedly stemmed from quarrels with the landlord over repairs.

The quads, three boys and a girl, born yesterday, were reported in fine condition. The quads were the first children for the 26-year-old mother.

FUND FOR AN ORGAN — Charles Ray, a student at the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, presents Chu-Hsiang (Suzanne Kao a check for $650, while Yoko Sato looks on. The money is part of the contributions for an organ Miss Kao can take back to Formosa, and for her to further her studies. (Dandelet photo)

Student To Take Organ Back To Formosa

For Chu-Hsiang (Suzanne) Kao these are the last days of her visit at the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Arriving from Formosa in September, 1956, she has spent three years on an overseas student scholarship given by the school, working for her Master of Arts in music and education. She was awarded the degree recently.

In the summer choir school concert tomorrow evening, her work will be concluded. She has sung in many of these concerts.

Born in Kao-Hsung, Formosa, in 1930, her love for music brought her to the seminary after five years of study at Doshisha University in Kyoto, Japan, where she received her bachelor of arts.

During her years of organ lessons from Wilbur Franklin Russell, Suzanne fostered a wish—that when she returned to Formosa, she could take an organ to the Presbyterian Seminary at Tai-nan, so her people could enjoy this instrument.

Close friends echoed her wish over the campus and a fund-raising campaign was begun this spring by Yoko Sato and Charles Ray, both seminary students.

Contributions have been sent by students and faculty members, by friends and churches where Suzanne has sung or played the organ. The funds will both further her work in music and help toward the purchase of the organ.

After her organ concert in late spring, Suzanne was presented with a check, making possible her studies at the Westminister Choir College in Princeton, N. J., until early 1960.

After that she will return to Formosa.

Your Right To Know About Government Stronger Now

We're happy to report further strides by the state Legislature in its recent session to protect your right to know. There were a number of laws passed which once ogain re-iterate that tax-supported agencies must conduct their business out in the open where the public can see.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed into law measures expanding the "open meeting" requirements of the Brown Act to 21 more state boards and commissions. The bills were authored, as in other years, by Assemblyman Ralph M. Brown, Modesto Democrat who this year was elected speaker of the lower house.

Assemblyman Brown, as usual working closely with the press and the California Newspaper Publishers Association, has now spread his freedom of information legislation to almost every public agency in the state, including city and county boards and commissions.

This session too approved a bill which clearly stated that charter cities, like San Rafael, come under the open meeting law. There had been a legal question.

Basically, the Brown Act and related legislation provide that no public agency may hold a meeting without first notifying the press and keeping the meeting open to both the public and their representatives, the press.

There was other legislation passed which implements your basic right of knowledge.

Assemblyman Frank Luckel (R, San Diego) plugged a loophole in the Brown Act regarding "executive sessions" for personal matters. The bill also prevents public agencies from using the executive session as a secret meeting on other matters, requiring that it be held in connection with a previously announced public meeting.

Sen. Donald Grunsky (R, Watsonville) successfully guided through a bill which forbids charging of "supervision fees" of newspaper, radio or television reporters when they inspect public records. Danger of these fees, which are beginning to crop up in numerous places, is that they can be raised so high they would effectively prevent proper surveillance of public records. That's another danger out of the way.

Regardless of whether you like or dislike what else happened in Sacramento in the last six months, at least you made more gains in being able to get the information about your government than you need to determine whether you like or dislike the way it is being run.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

PERSONALITY IN A HIGH-CHAIR

A baby taught an important lesson from her high-chair not long ago. She asserted her right to be a little independent.

The mother was at her wits' end trying to get the little one to eat her lunch. Most of the time the baby would turn away and refuse to open her mouth.

When the mother did manage to get a spoonful through, the child refused to swallow it.

But things suddenly changed when the mother turned to talk to a visiting friend. The little child deliberately reached out, picked up the spoon and started feeding herself.

Children need guidance and inspiration. But if they are "spoonfed" too much and not allowed to use their own initiative within reasonable limits, their development can be delayed or permanently retarded.

God has given a distinct individuality and personality to every child. He expects us to nurture it, not thwart or stunt it.

"Suffer the little children and forbid them not to come to me: for the kingdom of heaven is for such." (Matthew 19:14)

Inspire young people, O Lord, to recognize and develop the bit of greatness within them.

Boy, Nearly 14, Has First Date And Pop's Still Trying To Recover

By FRANCIS STILLEY
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — My son, nearing 14, had his first date the other night. His parents are still trying to recover.

The occasion was a dance for the junior high school graduating class. They didn't have such things back in Tecumseh, Okla., when father was a boy, but never mind. Times change.

To start with, Master Brenn Turner Stilley didn't hanker to attend the dance at all. It wasn't because he didn't know how to dance. He does. They teach it in schools here nowadays.

For days mother scurried about. New shoes, new shirt, new tie. Letting out the coat sleeves of his one good suit to cover his gangly arms. Getting the suit cleaned and pressed.

The great night finally arrived. Mother gave son an endless review of previous instructions in the social graces.

Father did likewise, taking the lad aside to slip him a five-spot for running expenses. The budding Lothario also was urged not to make a nitwit of himself by abandoning his date at the dance to gather and gab with the other yaps.

FATHER TIED SON'S TIE, combed his hair and loaded him into the family car with another boy to pick up their dates and transport them. The dates, who happened to be twins, were escorted out of their dwelling and what did the boys do?

Climbed into the back seat and left the girls standing. Dad had to hustle out, open the door in embarrassment and put them in the front seat.

SONNY BOY HAD SAID not to wait up. Said he could walk his girl home and make it back to the old homestead without any help. Nevertheless mother, as mothers do, waited up.

About midnight the young swain ambled in. His mother simply couldn't resist. "How did the dance turn out?" was the way she put it.

"My feet hurt," was all the reply she got.

Anyone Know Mt. Tam Legend?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

January of this year a friend and I were driving west toward the toll gates of of the Oakland-San Francisco Bridge when I asked if my friend knew of the "Legend of the Sleeping Princess of Mount Tamalpais." My friend said no. I then related the meager bit of "story" that I had heard.

My friend was impressed by the little I offered and asked some questions. I faltered and finally had to say "I don't know." My friend said "Why not?"

Fully in the game of the conversation I said, "All right, I'll find out for you."

I became very interested when my library search revealed that no book on this legend had been published. When I relayed the information to my friend the reply I received was, "Why don't you write one?" So I am trying.

I am now devoting my full time to this task. In the last six months I have found eleven variations to the legend. I have been trying to trace the origin of the legend and obtain all of the variations that I can locate.

At each place I try, I have had a great deal of assistance in my search and I have been given other names and places to contact.

I have planned my project in phases. Phase one was my initial search in libraries.

Phase two was personal contacts.

Phase three I had hoped to be able to advertise or publicize in order to contact many of the hidden areas of peoples' memories and old letters and paper files that store riches beyond "scholars'" dreams.

You were mentioned as friendly toward such an endeavor as mine and possibly having some information or leads that you would give me.

When I complete my project I plan to give all my notes, correspondence, etc., to the Bancroft Library so that other searchers will not have to duplicate my efforts. That is, of course, if The Bancroft Library considers my work acceptable.

New Jobless Pay Bill Merely Makes It Easier, Better To Be Unemployed

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — With the passage last week of AB 590, the unemployment insurance bill sponsored by James Hoffa's Teamsters' Union and Gov. Edmund G. Brown, questions are being raised as to whether another searching inquiry into the status of all unemployment payments should not be made.

Such an inquiry has not been undertaken for more than five years. Then investigations, sponsored by William Burkett, former director of the Department of Employment, uncovered situations which developed into a statewide scandal.

NOTHING MUCH was done, however, about the previous probe, although the law was strengthened somewhat during the 1955 session of the Legislature. But those who really know the situation suspect that the "chiseling" is still going on. They believe the laws should be changed once again to carry out the original purposes of the Unemployment Insurance Act.

The preamble to the law adopted by the 1935 Legislature defined unemployment insurance as a medium of support for workers who were out of jobs because of lack of work. The law never was intended in the beginning to support inidviduals, who could be working, in complete idleness. This is occuring at the present time.

Neither was it designed to support seasonal workers, who now regularly draw unemployment insurance during off-seasons. This practice amounts, in effect, to a subsidy for seasonal industries, to maintain a labor supply near their plants.

THE ORIGINAL act contemplated that a worker would receive 50 per cent of his wages in benefits, which was assumed to be sufficient to tide him over until he found another job.

But that isn't the way the law works at the present time. Under the Teamster Union benefit schedule, there is no earning bracket under which an unemployed worker receives less than 60 per cent of his take-home pay.

Testimony given before the Assembly and Senate Committees on the bill as finally adopted, took into consideration the gross pay of the workers, which is an unrealistic consideration, as the worker never received the gross pay.

THE DIFFERENCE between the gross and take-home goes to the government anyhow, and there are no taxes on unemployment insurance. Therefore, only take-home pay should have been considered.

The new schedules, therefore, are merely more of an incentive for the worker who wants to vacation on unemployment insurance, to follow such a procedure. And according to reports, some of them from official state sources, there are plenty of instances in which this is being done.

BENNETT CERF

A big, big shot in television was madly in love with a dazzling damsel but suspected she was two-timing him. So he hired an ex-cop to shadow the girl friend day and night, and report any suspicious goings-on. The private eye demanded, and got, $100 a week for this exacting duty. Everything worked out fine for about a month, then the TV big shot got a bit of a shock.

His girl ran away with the ex-copper.

The most polite and considerate man in Pennsylvania took his wife to Egypt to see the Pyramids and the Nile. When the time came to choose camels for the trip to the Pyramids, this perfect gentleman turned to his wife and ceremoniously inquired, "How would you like it, my dear? One lump or two?"

Drake High Students Have 'Insight'; 1914 Library Too Small For Hub

Insight is a rare commodity and Sir Francis Drake High School has it — at least officially.

"Insight" is the title of a slim 37-page volume of short stories, poems and book reviews, the first literary effort of its kind at Drake High School.

If nothing else, this magazine should produce in the minds of adults a healthy respect for the sensitivity and intellectual feats of a high school student.

Five seniors formed the inner circle which produced the volume: Editor Geoffrey Harris, Advisory Editors Barrie Brower, Jeannette Miller and Marcia Sandidge, and Business Manager Laurie Craise.

A. L. Lavin, who next year will head Drake High School's English department, was faculty advisor.

APROPOS OF things literary, the San Anselmo Library is on its way to expansion. Back in 1914, the city's public library was built for $9,000.

Now cramped and crowded, with many books stored away for lack of shelf space, the library is to be expanded to double its present size. Estimated cost is between $40,000 and $45,000.

ONE OF MARIN County's latent controversies has to do with the county's ability to attract indusry. The Marin Developmen Foundation is running no risk that anyone will misunderstand what its purpose is.

When the foundation's board of directors met on June 9 they voted to change to a new name: Marin Industrial Development Foundation.

A MYSTIFYING item on a recent agenda of the County Board of Supervisors was listed as "memory jogger."

What it turned out to be was a small stapled booklet with a separate page for such items of interest as county budget, roads, fire department, schools and libraries, planning and subdivision control, health and welfare, general county government, law enforcement and capital improvements.

A supervisor could easily carry the pocket-sized resume of vital facts with him for any encounter with an interested taxpayer. The supervisors had asked County Administrator Donald A. Jensen to fix up the "memory jogger" for them.

HERE ARE SOME sample facts:

"Only county in Bay Area not to raise tax rate in last four years.

"Growth: assessed value, eight per cent; population 5.6 per cent; increase in tax rate, 3.5 per cent.

"In spite of increased (road construction) expenditures, $21,000,000 would be required to correct all road deficiencies in county. Bond issue in 1960 being studied for this purpose.

"Planning commission staff does a great deal of extra work on master plan for each area of the county and special projects assigned by the commission and the board of supervisors.

"Criminal complaints filed with the district attorney's office have almost doubled in the last five years. Office has grown accordingly.

"A juvenile forestry camp is tentatively planned for 1960-61 on a pay-as-you-go basis. Estimate cost $100,000, with half of this anticipated from state funds."

STRANGE NAMES IN PRIMARY

Hawaii Votes Saturday On Becoming State

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON — Hawaii voters go to the polls Saturday to select candidates for Congress from a list that would convince most of their fellow Americans that "far-away places" do indeed have "strange-sounding names."

One of the hottest contests in the Democratic primary, for instance, involves a pair of young Nisei legislators named Daniel K. Inouye and Patsy Takemoto Mink. They are contending for nomination as representative-at-large.

The pairing makes complete sense in a land where Americans of Japanese ancestry comprise the largest single bloc — 35 per cent — in the most varied population in the United States.

TECHNICALLY, Hawaii is not yet one of the United States. The voters Saturday must approve three referenda to accept statehood. There is no doubt they will do this.

Then, after the general election July 28, at which a governor, two senators and a representative will be elected, the President will issue the proclamation of statehood and the formalities will be completed.

When admitted, Hawaii will be the first state with a non-white majority. The Census Bureau estimates that only 25 per cent of Hawaii's 578,000 people are Caucasians.

Other major strains, in addition to the Japanese, are the pure and part-Hawaiians, 18 per cent; Filipinos, 12 per cent; Chinese, 6 per cent; and others, notably Portuguese, 4 per cent.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION ballot reflects the diversity of the population. Territorial Sen. William H. Heen (D), of Chinese-Hawaiian ancestry, is favored over Connecticut-born Frank F. Fasi (D), another territorial senator, for the Democratic nomination for one seat in the U. S. Senate. The winner will oppose another Chinese-Hawaiian, Hiram L. Fong (R), who is unopposed for the Republican nomination.

A Caucasian, former Territorial Gov. Oren E. Long (D), is picked to defeat two rivals for the Democratic nomination for the second Senate seat. Territorial Sen. Wilfred C. Tsukiyama (R), a Nisei, is the only Republican candidate for the nomination.

The lengths of the Senate terms will be determined by lot when the winners come to Washington.

Four Democrats are seeking the nomination for the single House seat, but the choice is believed to lie between Territorial Sens. Inouye and Mink. Inouye is a 34-year-old lawyer who lost an arm in World War II combat with the famed all-Nisei "Go For Broke" 442nd Regimental Combat Team. Mrs. Mink, a 31-year-old graduate of the University of Chicago law school, in 1958 became the first woman Nisei elected to the Territorial Senate.

The winner of the Inouye-Mink race will face Charles R. Silva (R), a dentist of Portuguese ancestry who is director of territorial institutions.

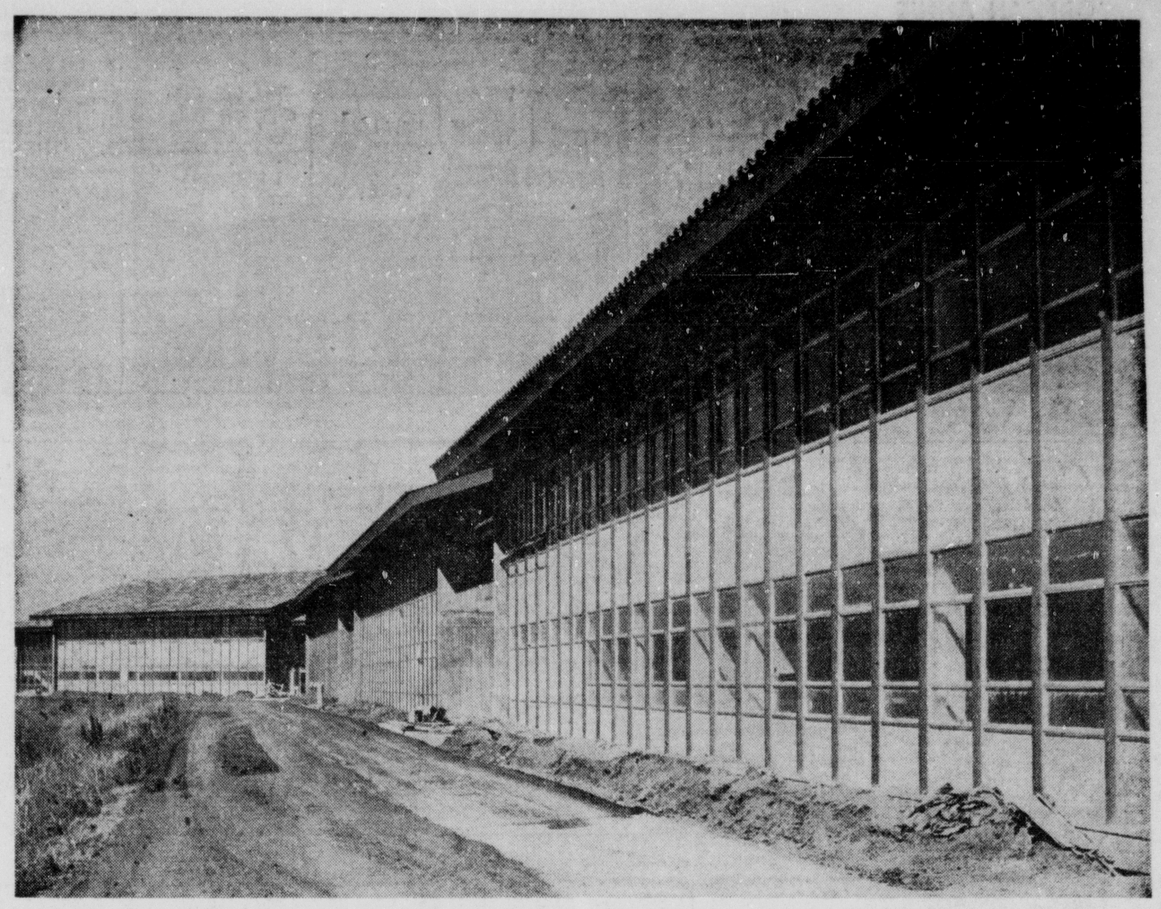
EACH PARTY saved its best known candidate for the gubernatorial race. The Democrats is John A. Burns, 50, who was elected in 1956 and 1958 as Hawaii's non-voting delegate to the House of Representatives. Burns faces nominal opposition in the primary from Edward J. Hitchcock, like Burns a former Honolulu police captain.

The unopposed Republican nominee is Territorial Gov. William F. Quinn, 39, who was appointed to that post by President Eisenhower in 1957.

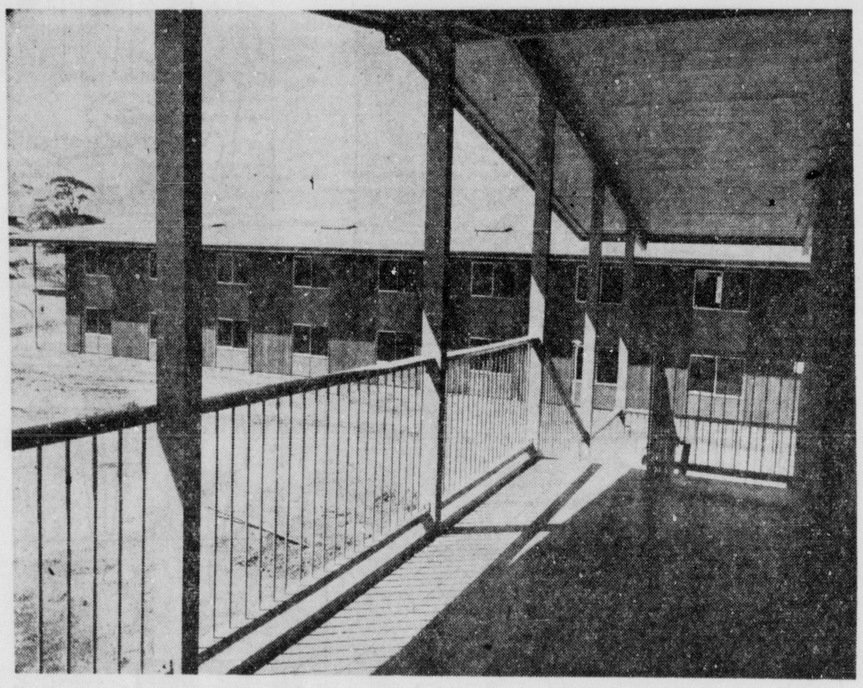
The Quinn-Burns race is considered likely to be the closest in the July 28 general election, but Democrats are favored to sweep the three Congressional seats.

Seminary At Strawberry Gets Ready For Opening

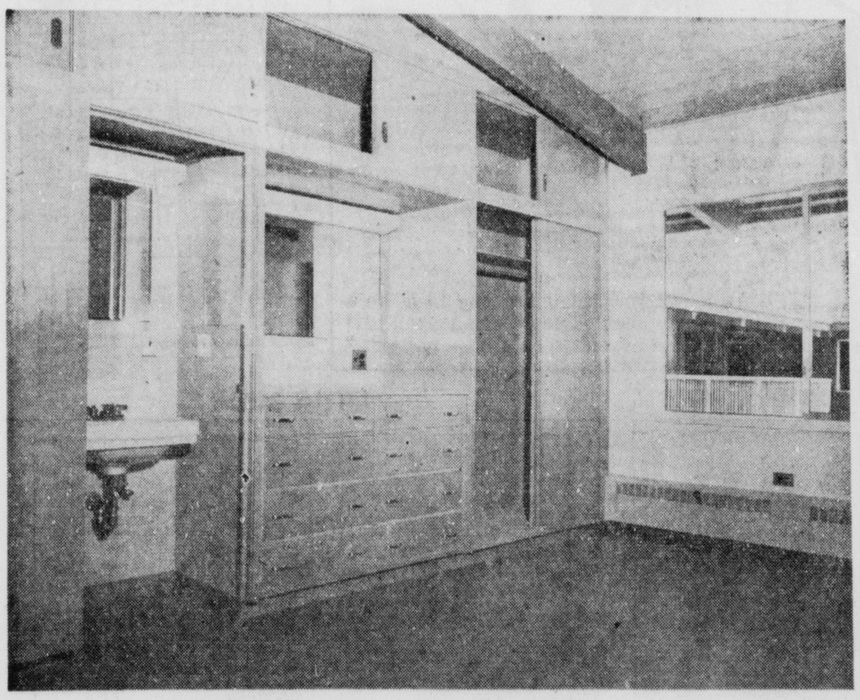
MEN'S DORMITORY — Two-story structure has clean lines with wide stairways at each end. Exterior landscaping and rock work is well underway. Seminary authorities hope to open the establishment next week. (Independent-Journal photos)



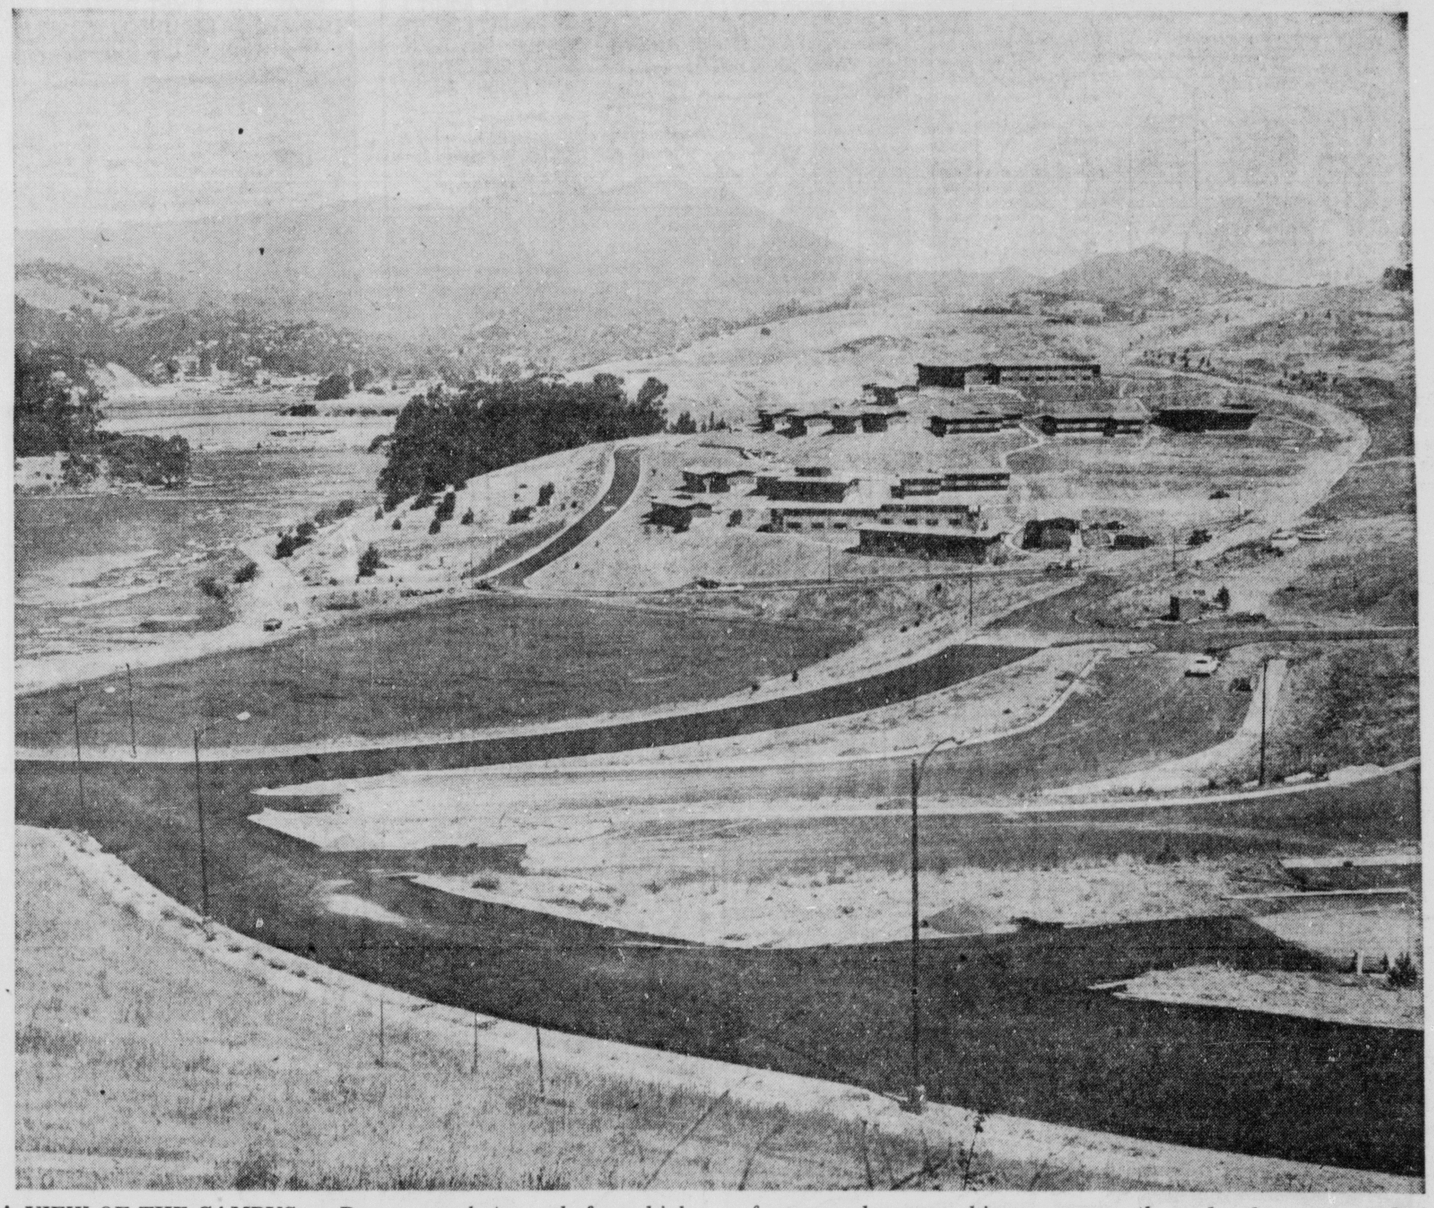
CLASSROOM BUILDINGS — Four buildings, each 90 feet by 70 feet are connected by covered hallways. Upper floor of the building in the foreground is the chapel. Downstairs is the student lounge, snack bar, book store and branch post office. The far building contains music studios and also kindergarten facilities for children of the married students. Other buildings contain classrooms and faculty offices. Business manager Paul C. Mason considers these buildings the heart of the seminary.



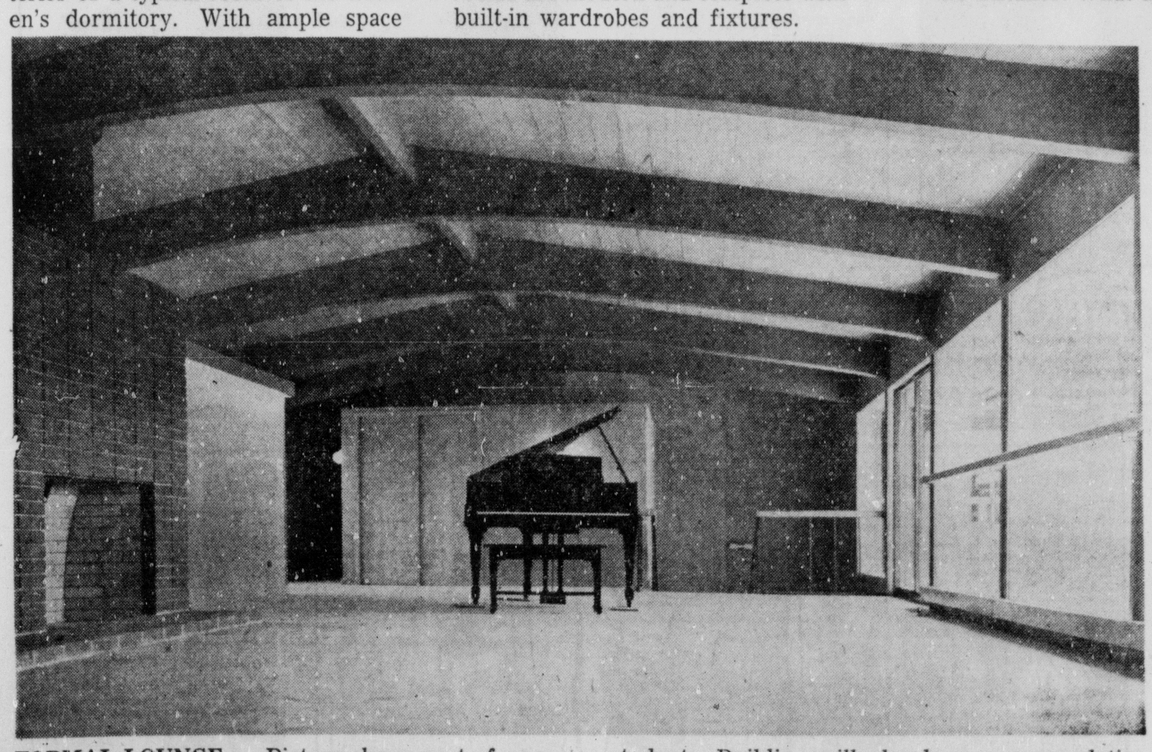
WOMEN'S DORMITORY — Two-story, U-shaped dormitory will house 64 single women students. View, above, was taken from porch of center section showing one of the two wings.



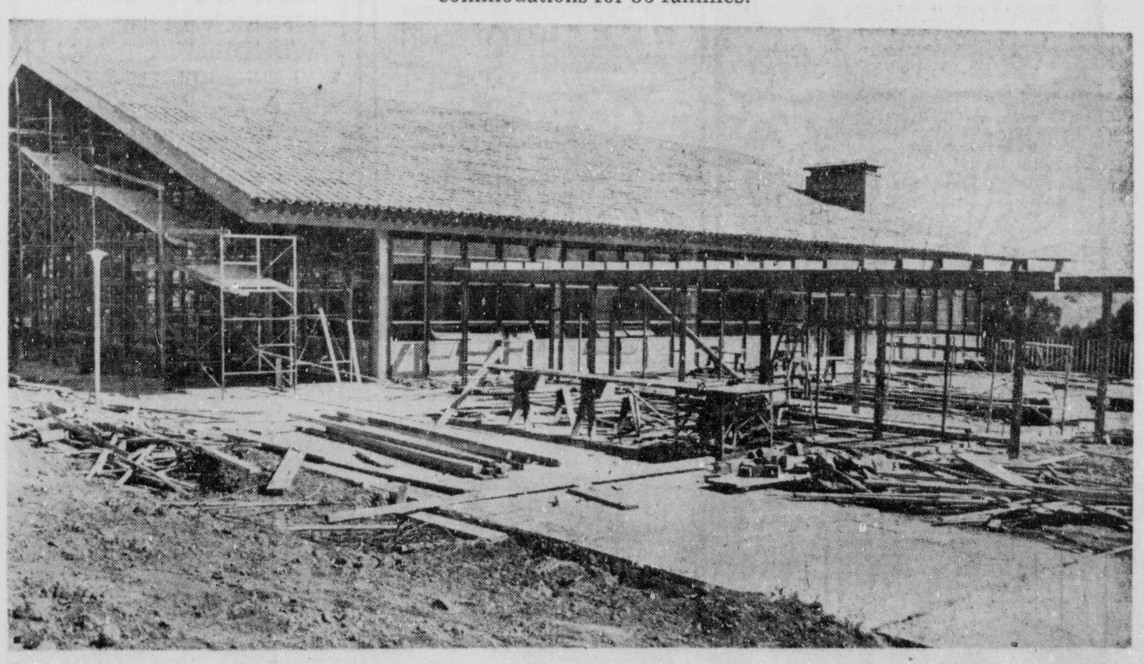
TYPICAL ROOM — Here is the interior of a typical room of the women's dormitory. With ample space and facilities for two women, the rooms are modern and complete with built-in wardrobes and fixtures.



A VIEW OF THE CAMPUS — Panorama photograph from highest point on the campus shows Mill Valley with Mt. Tamalpais in the distance. What appears to be three light-colored streets, right foreground, are parking areas on three levels, accommodating about 50 cars each. Center foreground will be the athletic field. Above, right, are Village II and III for married students, with accommodations for 86 families.



FORMAL LOUNGE — Picture shows part of women's dormitory which will house 64 single women students. Building will also have accommodations for women's counselor and nine-bed infirmary.



CAFETERIA A-BUILDING — Completely glassed-in cafeteria building is capable of seating 150 diners simultaneously. Through use of dividing doors, four separate dining areas can be created. Construction work in foreground will become a trellis to support climbing vines in an adjacent outdoor area. Building rests on knoll and has characteristic California Mission style tile roof.

MOIST HEAT WILTS COLLARS IN MIDWEST ATLANTIC AREAS

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Collar-wilting heat spread across much of the Midwest and middle Atlantic states region today.

Warm, moist air from the Gulf boosted early morning temperatures in the area 10 degrees or more above the preceding day.

Thermometers in downtown Chicago registered in the low 80s at midnight, a jump of 20 degrees in one day. Nighttime readings generally were in the 70s throughout the Southeast and northward to the southern Great Lakes.

Cool air blankets the northern tier of states. Early morning readings were mostly in the 50s and 60s from Montana to the northern Great Lakes and from New York State into New England. Readings dipped into the 40s in parts of Upper Michigan.

Long Makes Plea In Smuggled Speech

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — Gov. Earl K. Long appealed to the people of Louisiana in a smuggled tape recording last night to pray him out of the mental hospital into which he said he was railroaded by his "jealous" wife and ambitious nephew, U.S. Sen. Russell B. Long.

Political observers speculated the colorful meandering stump-type speech, broadcast on radio stations throughout the state, might draw thousands of political supporters to the Covington Junior High School basketball court where Long will appear for a district court habeas corpus proceeding tomorrow.

His wife, Mrs. Blanche Long, whom he bitterly accused of conspiring with his political enemies, fled the state Tuesday, indicating she would make no further effort to force mental treatment on her husband.

The court will not rule on Long's sanity but on whether he was properly committed to the state hospital.

New Orleans radio station WNOE to which Long's attorney, Joe Arthur Sims, took the original recording, quoted the attorney as saying Long would prefer a sanity hearing "to enable him to refute charges that he suffers from mental instability."

Long's speech was delivered in a strong, clear voice. It wandered and digressed, but veteran statehouse reporters said it "sounded like the same old Earl."

"This is Gov. Earl K. Long talking from the Mandeville Hospital," he started out. "I'm glad to tell you good people that as far as mentally, I never was in better health than I am today. In my whole life, I never was in better health than I am today. In my whole life, I've never been unconscious except when I was asleep."

But he said he was 11 pounds underweight "after they got through shoving me from one street corner to another, and put me on stretchers and tying me and shooting me with hypodermics."

"I've been undermined by my nephew, by my wife, and my supposed-to-be-cousin Arthur Long in Baton Rouge, who means no more to me than the moon," Long said.

"These people who wanted to kill the loan shark bill and Russell Long wanting to be governor has (sic) conspired with my wife, who is one of the most jealous women that God ever let live on this earth, and really and truly she has very little to be jealous about."

The loan shark bill—regulating interest rates on small loans—to which Long referred, was one of several measures he backed which were defeated in the recent legislative session.

Russell Long, son of the governor's late brother and political predecessor Huey Long, was one of the family members with whom Mrs. Long conferred before deciding to commit him for mental treatment.

San Rafael Teacher To Retire

Mrs. Dorothy Barnes, teacher of English and social studies at San Rafael's Davidson School, has submitted her resignation to the San Rafael Board of Education.

Her retirement ends 26 years in the San Rafael Schools. She taught upper grade elementary school students first at the E Street School and later at Davidson School.

Mrs. Barnes is a graduate of the old San Francisco State Normal School. She taught from 1911 to 1913 in Fairfax, then stopped to attend the University of California where she received her secondary teaching credential. After marrying and rearing a daughter, Dr. Virginia Barnes, a San Rafael dermatologist, she returned to teaching in 1933 after her husband died. She was then 41.

Prince Philip Goofs— Royal Yacht Gashed

MONTREAL, Canada (UPI)— Crewmen aboard the royal yacht Britannia covered up Prince Philip's seamanship mistake with blue paint today while Philip and Queen Elizabeth II set out on a 19-mile tour of Montreal, Canada's largest city.

The queen and her husband were to call on some 20,000 children in a ball park this morning, drive through Montreal and two of its suburbs, and wind up a busy day tonight by being guests of the city at a banquet and ball in a hotel named for the queen.

Meanwhile, crewmen aboard the royal yacht rigged special platforms on its starboard side near the stern. They were ordered to wield paint brushes to erase nearly 25 feet of scuff marks caused yesterday when Philip, a former Royal Navy skipper, slammed the Britannia too hard into a wharf at Three Rivers.

There was no indication what the queen told Philip she thought of his seamanship. But Esmond Butler, the queen's Canadian press secretary, told newsmen that St. Lawrence River channels were notoriously difficult to navigate and that the bump could have been caused by even the best pilot.

Philip did not comment. But he stayed off the bridge when the Britannia arrived here yesterday.

Pageant-loving Montrealers, most of whom had a day off work yesterday to attend a parade honoring French Canada's patron saint, Jean Baptiste, were expected to take French leave today to see their queen.

Although today was a big day where most Montrealers were concerned, an even bigger one shaped up for tomorrow when the queen and President Eisenhower formally open the St. Lawrence Seaway.

San Anselmo Girl Joins Ice Follies

A 17-year-old San Anselmo girl has been signed for a chorus line position in the "Ice Follies of 1959" currently playing at Winterland in San Francisco.

The new follies member is Marcia Sandidge of 5 Grove Hill, San Anselmo, who was graduated this month from Drake High school. She was a skating student of former Ice Follies star Ray Schramm.

Two other Marinites who joined the show just before it left San Francisco last year are Gail Foster of Larkspur and Carol Ann Simpson of San Rafael.

Mass-Killer Starkweather Goes Calmly To Death In Electric Chair

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Charles Starkweather, confessed slayer of 11 persons, went calmly to his death in Nebraska's electric chair early today.

Five charges of electricity were pumped into the body of the 20-year-old who committed 10 knife and rifle slayings in a bloody reign of terror in January, 1958. He later admitted an 11th slaying.

Dr. P. E. Getsher pronounced the killer dead at 12:05 a.m. CST, only four minutes after Starkweather walked into the chamber.

Ironically, Dr. B. A. Finkle, veteran prison physician who was to have pronounced the killer dead, collapsed at the prison only minutes before the execution, and it was announced shortly after Starkweather's death that the doctor had died of an apparent heart attack.

Starkweather merely shook his head negatively when Deputy Warden John Greenholtz asked him whether he had a last statement. He had made an apparent attempt at humor when Greenholtz entered his cell to announce it was time to go.

"What's your hurry?" Starkweather was quoted by the deputy warden. Earlier in the evening, the slayer told a guard, "I had a feeling that tonight was the night."

Starkweather entered the small chamber at 12:01 a.m. CST and walked quickly to the large oaken chair. There were 40 spectators.

The anonymous executioner, from outside the state, threw the switch the first time at 12:03 a.m. Four more charges, each hurling the slayer's inert body against its bonds, were dealt.

Starkweather was calm through his last afternoon, Greenholtz said. His last visitors were members of his family.

The execution had been stayed four times. Most dramatic of the last-minute stays came May 22, when a U.S. district judge called it off only 98 minutes before the execution hour.

Responsible for the stay was Starkweather's father, Guy, who spent a desperate night and early morning telephoning federal judges in an effort to stop the execution.

However, the best efforts of the elder Starkweather went for nothing yesterday. He caused an historic evening session of the Nebraska Supreme Court, but the court refused to grant the stay "for want of statutory authorization."

Summer Idleness Breeds Trouble; Take Case Of 15-Year-Old Mary

Here's a word of warning. Keep your teen-agers busy this summer. Their idle hands really can be the devil's workshop.

Mary was 15 last summer. She didn't want to go to summer school. She was too young to work. Having nothing to do, she went to the shore each day. Soon she made friends with some idle older kids and joined their gang. Afternoon beer parties came next. Then they had some big, wild nighttime whing-dings. Mary's parents did not know what was happening. They discovered her pregnancy in October. They'll never forgive themselves, or Mary.

Each year I meet several girls like Mary. See why I warn you? Keep your teen-agers constructively busy this summer. Can they find jobs? They'll learn some important lessons, as well as earn money.

Can they go to summer school? Many high schools offer good summer sessions. Your teen-agers can improve bad grades. They can explore new subjects. They can take art, music, typing, shop. If there's nothing else, can they work regularly at home? Does your house need painting? Furniture refinishing? Yard remodeling? Teen-agers aren't babies. They can do many things.

The teen years are rebellious years. Almost all young people try bad things sometimes. They form summer gangs and egg each other on. Their interest may turn to drinking, stealing or sex. Even well-raised youngsters like Mary may do awful things. Idleness is bad.

READERS' FORUM

(Q)—"A family moved in our neighborhood recently. They have three teen-agers. Their parents don't care what they do. The children have parties every Saturday night which are durnken brawls. The rest of us are up in arms. What can we do?" —Mrs. N.R.

(A)—Go either to the police or to the probation office. Make a full report. Ask to have the next party investigated.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, June 25th the 176th day of the year, with 189 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening stars are Mercury, Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

On this date in history:

In 1868, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Louisiana were re-admitted to the Union.

In 1876, Sioux Indians under Sitting Bull massacred Gen. George Custer and 208 men of the 7th Cavalry Regiment at the Battle of the Little Big Horn.

In 1886, Arturo Toscanini, then only 19 years old, conducted an opera for the first time, when the regular conductor failed to appear for a performance of "Aida" at Rio de Janeiro.

In 1906, Pittsburgh millionaire Harry K. Thaw shot and killed Stanford White, the nation's most famous architect, in the nightclub atop the old Madison Square Garden.

In 1914, fire destroyed a large part of Salem, Mass., making 15,000 persons homeless.

In 1950, the Korean War began.

A thought for today: The journalist and cartoonist, Bill Mauldin, said: "Look at an infantryman's eyes and you can tell how much war he's seen."

'RESENTED' TOT BADLY BEATEN

Fifteen-month-old Debbie Faye Mize clutched a rag doll as she gazed fearfully at the world around her Covington, Ky., hospital crib today through slitted eyes, the victim of a rage she could not understand. Charged with assault and battery on the badly beaten tot is Harold Wayne Rouse, 19, who police said admitted taking Debbie by the heels and banging her head against a door. Rouse, according to police, said he "resented" the child, born out of wedlock to the 17-year-old girl he married three months ago. He said the child was not his. (AP Wirephoto)

College Board Approves Economic Discussions

The Henry George School of Social Science was granted permission this week to conduct 10 weekly tuition-free discussion groups in economics at the College of Marin, starting July 13.

Approval was given by the Marin Junior College district Board Tuesday night on the recommendation of Dr. Samuel N. Le Count, principal of the College of Marin adult school.

Le Count, who said the discussion groups should not be a part of the adult school because no tuition is charged, suggested the board impose a fee for use of a classroom. Trustees decided to make it $5 per night.

College President Ward H. Austin had recommended denial on the strength of previous board policy against the use of campus facilities by other schools.

"There's nothing personal in it at all," Austin said. "I don't know anything about the Henry George School. It may be perfectly harmless."

A letter from Glenn E. Hoover, a director of the school, described it as "non-political, non-profit and non-sectarian." Springboard for economic discussions, he said is Henry George's famed book on his single-tax theory, "Progress and Poverty."

"Let's not try to stifle free speech and free expression as long as it's not subversive and un-American," said Trustee George G. Washburn.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy said she knows nothing about the philosophy of Henry George, "but I am inclined to think the college wouldn't suffer." Her motion to permit the weekly discussions carried unanimously.

In other matters the college board:

1. Approved, Washburn abstaining, a contract with Harold M. Engle, San Rafael structural engineer, for design of a new lighting system at the college football field and authorized a call for bids on the installation after the county counsel has approved the agreement. Engle was authorized to have test borings made for the steel light poles.

2. Expressed appreciation to the Faculty Assn. for offering, by letter, to assist in the correction of deficiencies noted in a recent accreditation report by the Western College Assn.

3. Tabled, pending a survey of other junior colleges, a Faculty Assn. letter asking clarification of the status of faculty chaperons and club sponsors at off-campus student activities.

4. Agreed to permit the public release of information on how College of Marin students have fared in the University of California subject "A" (English) examination, provided students' names are not used. The action reversed a decision by Austin.

5. Approved a revised plan to permit advanced college placement and credit for high school students who have successfully passed college entrance examination board tests.

6. Authorized the employment of Erwin Gressinger as instructor in electronics and Mrs. Dolores R. Beckman as instructor in business administration.

7. Authorized a $13,635 warrant, drawn to Marin Title Guaranty Co. for purchase of property on Kentfield's Elm avenue from Angelo J. and Loretta Lamperti of San Francisco.

Hospital Has Good Chance To Get Funds

Marin County Hospital District stands a good chance of winning approval of its application for $1,486,374 in Hill-Burton Act funds for expansion of Marin General Hospital.

This was reported to district directors Tuesday night by S. Ames Pence, hospital administrator.

Pence said the district stands sixth on the California priority list for 1959-60. Allocations by the state Advisory Hospital Council probably will not be announced until September, he told the board.

If the district receives the requested allocation, Pence said, a local bond issue of about $500,000 would be needed to match a grant of that amount by the Babcock Memorial Foundation.

Cost of adding a 100-bed addition to Marin General Hospital is estimated at $2,484,321.

In other matters, hospital district directors:

1. Amended district bylaws to provide for enlargement of the hospital's active medical staff from 110 to 125 doctors and reduction of associate staff members from 100 to 85. Dr. W. Scott Polland, chief of staff, requested the change.

2. Agreed to take out California unemployment and disability insurance for hospital employees at no cost to them. The decision is subject to employee approval.

Attorney Plans Practice Here

Fred C. Robbins Jr., 32, whose father owns a collection agency in San Rafael, was sworn in as an attorney last week in San Francisco.

Robbins said he eventually will open a law practice in San Rafael, but for the moment he plans to help his father and gain experience. He was graduated from San Francisco Law School in 1956 and has been helping in his father's business ever since.

The young attorney lives with his wife and two children in Novato. He attended local elementary schools, Tamalpais High School, and College of Marin before working his way through law school at night. During World War II, he served two years with the Navy.

Low Water Supply Poses Fire Threat

A possible critical fire protection hazard in the high area of Almonte behind Tamalpais High School developed Tuesday evening when two 50,000-gallon water tanks were drained, according to Homestead Fire Chief Chester Kirby.

Kirby theorized the abnormally hot weather and constantly increasing number of homes in the area have overtaxed the water supply. He said the tanks are serving many more homes than originally intended.

Kirby said Marin Municipal Water District officials notified the fire department about 11 p.m. of the dangerously low supply.

The tanks were refilled during the night as demands decreased, Kirby said.

The same tanks also supply portions of the Tamalpais Valley Fire District where a similar hazardous condition existed last night, according to Tam Valley Fire Chief Herbert (Bud) Owen.

Sausalito Budget

The final public hearing on the proposed Sausalito City Budget for fiscal 1959-60 will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the city council chambers, according to City Manager Donald A. Duerr.

Garbage Disposal Plan Offered

A Belvedere man and his inventor brother from Atherton has a new garbage disposal plan that they say would reduce costs below anything Marin County has now or has been offered.

They reported this to the Marin County Garbage Disposal Committee Tuesday.

Elmer J. Martin of 536 San Rafael avenue, Belvedere, and his brother, Robert Martin of Atherton, said they have a modern garbage disposal incinerator which is odorless and smokeless and cheaper to operate than the other systems. Robert Martin has a patent on the invention, which has been installed in other communities.

The brothers did not give details of the process but said they plan to introduce the incinerator in Marin.

Jr. Stock Show Opens Saturday

The tenth annual West Marin Junior Livestock Show will get under way at 10 a.m. Saturday with livestock judging at the Red Barn, formerly the roundhouse at Point Reyes Station for a narrow gauge rail line.

William Hall Thomson, president-elect of the West Marin Lions Club which sponsors the two-day show, will crown Genevieve Maestri of Point Reyes Station as queen of the show at a coronation ball starting at 9 p.m. Saturday at Forester's Hall.

Miss Maestri's attendants will be Karma Clapp of Nicasio and Ardele Bloom of Olema. Hugh Turner, manager of radio station KTIM, will be master of ceremonies.

The big event on Sunday will be a gala parade scheduled to start at noon with Edward I. Butler, retired Marin County Superior Court judge, heading the parade in an old-time buggy. Thomson will be a "parade wrangler." The parade will be preceded at 10:30 a.m. Sunday by a 4-H riding group demonstration across from Palace Market.

Charles Denman and Waldo Giacomini, show managers, said the livestock division this year had been expanded in order that 4-H Club members from Novato might exhibit. Awarding of festival prizes is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

Official entries have been made by members of Novato-Miwok 4-H Club, Novato Trivalley 4-H Club, Novato Aggies, Pt. Reyes-Olema 4-H Club, San Geronimo Valley 4-H Club, Nicasio 4-H Club, Tomales 4-H Club, Laguna 4-H Club, Tomales Future Farmers and Tomales High School.

On both Saturday and Sunday, a chicken barbecue will be served in Foresters Hall, starting at 11:30 a.m.

Other show officials include a guide dog demonstration by the Nicasio 4-H Club at 1 p.m. Saturday and a 4-H sewing group fashion show at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Horace Edrington, president of the West Marin Lions Club, is honorary chairman of the two-day show.

Other show foficials include Thomson and Louis Bloom, parade; Dr. Frederick J. Saam and Fred Rodoni, coronation ball; Don Abelesth, layout and refreshments; Armin Truttman, Tony Taveggia, and Al Cencio, finance; Denman and Giacomini, town decorations; Don McIsaac, Armin and Frank Truttman, Horace Edrington, and Charles Morrison, livestock show; Taveggia, Boyd Stewart, Toby and Waldo Giacomini, Joe Mendoza and Tony Matulich, barbecue; Mrs. Joe Mendoza, 4-H and Tomales High School sewing and fashion show; Tomales High School Band, queen contest; Gus Kovats, electrician; Doug and Don Joslin, games; Bert Jensen, outside concessions; Mrs. Waldo Giacomini, cooking, and Dan Hagmaier, 4-H exhibits.

Flood Control Chairman Resigns Post

Charles Austin of Fairfax, chairman of the Marin County Flood Control Advisory Commission, has resigned, but a new chairman is yet to be picked, commission member Francis Newton of Mill Valley disclosed today.

The commission met Tuesday night and elected Newton temporary chairman for the evening. But election of a permanent chairman was postponed because County Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham and secretary Laverne Robinson were no present. Only seven members of the 14-man commission were present.

No date has been set for the next meeting. Newton said Brigham, as executive secretary of the commission, will probably set the date for the next meeting.

County Planning Director Mary Summers asked for Tuesday night's meeting so that the commission could study proposed harbor projects in Richardson Bay.

The county board of supervisors is seeking a state loan to dredge Saucelito Canal which runs from Sausalito to Mill Valley. Purpose of the flood control meeting was to determine what percentage of Richardson Bay may be improved, and what percentage should be left as is for flood control purposes.

The commission referred the matter to Brigham for a recommendation.
